Losses Mellon Boosts Tax Estimate

Treasury Chief Expects Total to Pass $185,000,000 for Fiscal Year

Talk on Reduction Prospects
Refused by Secretary as Premature

WASHINGTON, Sept. 23. (P)—Additional losses made today in the Treasury's estimate of the fiscal year 1927 surplus, probably 500,000,000, and property loss estimated at $185,000,000.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 23. (P)—The administration is as anxious as others to cut taxes to the lowest safe limit," said Mr. Mellon, "but we have got to look to future years. We are enjoying tax returns now on unprecedented prosperity, and any change in this would wipe out the anticipated margin."

OLD-FIELD PLAN HIT

He described as impossible the proposal of Chairman Oldfield, of the Democratic Congressional Campaign Committee, that the surplus of $370,000,000 of last year be added to the probable surplus for this fiscal year and a total cut of approximately $500,000,000 in taxes be made.

This would cut the annual government revenue below its regular needs, the Secretary said. Receipts and expenditures must be balanced annually, he added, and the surplus of two years could not be added to make a permanent annual reduction. Furthermore, he pointed out that the $370,000,000 surplus of last fiscal year has all been applied toward reduction of the public debt.

RECEIPT PREDICTIONS

The Treasury predicted today that income-tax receipts for September would total $440,000,000 or $15,000,000 more than previously estimated. This will bring the total of income-tax collections for this quarter to more than $1,000,000,000, or almost $100,000,000 above a year ago.

This will be partly offset, however, by a drop of about $80,000,000 this quarter in miscellaneous tax receipts under the new law. Altogether, the Treasury believes $200,000,000 less will be collected this year than last year from the miscellaneous taxes.

Customs receipts since July 1, last, already are $100,000,000 above the collection a year ago.

SALEM (Or.) Sept. 23. (Exclusive)—The anti-autobus epidemic, which has struck the University of Oregon, threatens to descend on students of the Oregon Agricultural College as well. The question of prohibiting students from taking their autos to school will come up before the board of regents of the agricultural college at its next meeting, according to Secretary of State Koser, member of the board. Koser has received a number of letters asking that this action be taken. The university has just notified parents that it is not advisable for students to bring cars to school.

Damage Set at $75,000
as Tornado Sweeps Over
Columbiana County Town

EAST LIVERPOOL (O.) Sept. 23. (P)—Five persons were injured, one probably fatally, and approximately $75,000 damage done today when a windstorm struck at two points in Southern Columbiana county.

Four were injured in a suburban settlement seven miles north of East Liverpool and another near Wellsville, about two miles distant, and property damage resulted at Summitville, seventeen miles southwest. Two terrific wind and rain storms apparently met in the suburban zone north of here. Wreckage was strewn along the Lincoln Highway as well as the Wellsville, Lisbon and Salineville-Summitville road.

SANDUSKY (O.) Sept. 23. (P)—A tornado twisted its way along a twelve-mile stretch of Lake Erie near here today, whisked through the center of Huron, nine miles from here, and disappeared into Lake Erie. The damage at Huron was placed at between $10,000 and $20,000. Barren were uprooted and trees uprooted in the vicinity. A house was wrecked at Bloomington, about half a dozen other homes uprooted.

RADIO MAN TAKES ISSUE WITH EDISON

Disputes Statement That Broadcasting Has Failed
for Musical Purposes

CHICAGO, Sept. 23. (P)—Radio dealers are "making much more money than phonograph dealers, and the public, in general, is entirely satisfied with the advancement in radio," Frank Reichmann, vice-president of the Broadcast Listeners' Association, told Thomas A. Edison tonight in a telegram instigated by statements attributed to the inventor that the radio for musical purposes had failed.

"A newspaper quotes you as making certain statements detrimental to the entire radio industry," the telegram read. "I positively cannot believe that a man of your intelligence and experience could be so badly misinformed as to publicly condemn a tremendously growing and healthy American industry."

"Actually the best modern radio devices give distinctly better music than the finest phonographs. Radio dealers have made money and they are making money, certainly more than phonograph dealers, and they are going to continue to make money on radios."

"Generally the public is entirely satisfied with advancements in radio, as evidenced by the increase in our business alone of 800 per cent over last year. We will be very glad to send you a modern radio set for test. Please wire confirmation my impression as to the quality of the music would be satisfactory."

WORLD COURT ENTRY BAR FEARED IN WASHINGTON

Action on Reservations at Geneva
May Necessitate Submission of New Protocol to Senate

WASHINGTON, Sept. 23. (P)—American entry into the World Court will have to be reconsidered by the Senate in the judgment of a number of informed officials in the Capitol if the member powers adopt the recommendations submitted to them by the Geneva advisory conference on the American reservations.

In the absence of official advice from Geneva any authorized expression of views was lacking, but an undercurrent of feeling was discernable that the whole question of American participation in the work of the Court had been greatly complicated. Initiative now rests with the powers participating in the Geneva discussion as the report of the conference, as adopted today, is merely of an advisory character. It recommends that the powers a formula of reply to the inquiry of the Washington government as to whether American signature of the World Court protocol on the basis of the reservation attached by the Senate would be satisfactory.

GENE TUNNEY DETHRONES JACK DEMPSEY AS FISTIC KING

Record Crowd of 132,000 Fans Sees
Champion Deposed in Ten-Round
Bout Via Decision Route

BY ALAN J. GOULD

RINGSIDE, SESQUICENTENNIAL STADIUM, PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 23. (P)—Gene Tunney, the fighting Marine, is the new heavyweight champion of the world. He dethroned Jack Dempsey, king for the last seven years, tonight, by smashing his way to decisive victory in a ten-round match that went the limit and furnished one of the greatest upsets in boxing history.

Dempsey, only a shell of his old fighting self, was outboxed and out-fought from start to finish, crosby and bleeding in a one-sided battle that was decided in a driving rain before a record crowd of 132,000 spectators.

The great throng, forming a spectacle unparalleled in sports annals, paid close to $2,000,000 to witness a match that fell far short of the acrobatic feats expected of it.

Stunned at first by the amazing slowness, the lethargy and lack of lightning fire in the champion's attack, the dripping throng cheered on the challenger as he steadily hammered and battered his way to triumph, piling up points that gave him an overwhelming margin and earned him the unanimous decision of the judges.

MASTERTFUL FIGHT

Tunney, reaching the pinnacle of a fighting career that started when he was a buck private in the ranks of the marines, fought a masterful battle, outgeneraling Dempsey at nearly every turn as well as outpunching the champion. The battling product of sidewalk of New York's Greenwich Village, at the age of 28, fairly won his laurels and cleanly demonstrated his right to the purple robe of pugilism.

But the handsome, rugged challenger dethroned a man who came to the end of the championship trail with few weapons and few claims to defend his place at the top.

Dempsey entered the ring a 4-to-1 favorite, backed as heavily as any champion at his age, and in spite of his three-year layoff, but except for a gallant stand and a few flashes of his old self, he was outclassed.

TIGER MAN TAMED

Dempsey was far from the furious fighter, the "Tiger Man" who smashed his way to sensational victories over Jess Willard, Georges Carpentier and Luis Firpo. Gone was the devastating punch, the furious aggressiveness that marked him as one of the most feared men of the ring.

Instead he seemed in a daze from the start, unable at any time to sustain his attack for more than a few seconds. Occasionally, he connected with long left or right hooks to the head and body, but these no more than jarred the challenger temporarily. Always Tunney came back, punning with rights and lefts from the shoulder, rocking Dempsey's head with short but powerful punches.

It was Tunney's terrific right-hand blows to the head, chin and ribs that decided the battle. This slow delivered like a rain rod, but cut about his face and finally, in the last round, closed his left eye completely.

SORRY SIGHT

Dempsey was a sorry sight in the final round as Tunney, rearing victory and the goal of his fighting career was in his grasp, threw caution to the winds and lashed the champion about the ring. Gummy Dempsey, weaving and bobbing, bared in but he only succeeded in taking a steady stream of punishment. One eye closed, blood trickled from a wound under the title-holder's right eye, his mouth was cut and he was reeling. His knees wobbled under the furious shower of Tunney's attack.

Desperately as Tunney tried, however, he could not bring Dempsey down. The champion, as he had done throughout the fight, absorbed his beating without giving much ground. In a final wild rally, he called his own guns into play, the weapons that had knocked out most of the best men ever faced, but this time they weren't loaded.

GREAT OVATION

The crowd gave Tunney a tumultuous ovation as the judges' decision was announced. There was no doubt as to what it would be. Dozens of the more enthusiastic climbed into the ring and a squad of police had to be called in to clear the ring.

AERIAL BASE FOR SAN DIEGO

West Coast Lighter-Than-Air Station Pledged by Warner and Moffett in Southern City

SAN DIEGO, Sept. 23. (P)—San Diego is to get the proposed West Coast lighter-than-air base when Congress appropriates funds for carrying out the project. The sum of $20,000,000 has been estimated as necessary for the construction, these experiments may be conducted in a place where ideal conditions exist.

The admiral said that Congress is likely to appropriate money for the construction of additional naval aviation bases and predicted that it may be at least five years before actual work on the proposed San Diego airship base is started. He said that conditions at the La Jolla, N. J., lighter-than-air base are far from ideal as compared with San Diego.

Admiral Moffett announced that the special service squadron comprised of PN-10 planes probably will leave Philadelphia next month for San Diego via the Panama Canal. This squadron, formerly in command of the late Commander John Rodgers, later may attempt a flight to Honolulu.

LONDON, Sept. 23. (Exclusive)—After severe reprimands from the other government ministers, the British Foreign Office is bestirring itself to action on the Chinese situation. The Board of Trade, Colonial and War ministries and other departments have been finding the greatest difficulties in overcoming the inertia which has been traditionally assumed for years.

The falling off of the Lancashire cotton exports to China constitute the main force behind the government's decision to adopt a strong-arm policy. This was manifested in last night's action in dispatching a third flotilla from Malta and a stiff note to the Peking government. While Lancashire has watched its trade decreasing, it has seen at the same time the increase of Chinese imports from other countries.

JAPANESE ACTIVITIES
But the more serious aspect of the Chinese situation, which is alarming the Cabinet, is presented by the agents of the British government who continue to pour in alarming reports about the Japanese preparations on the one hand to stimulate chaos in the southern provinces of China which the British are considering re-occupying and, on the other hand, to place Northern China under its domination. Japan ever since the British denunciation of the Anglo-Japanese treaty in connection with the Washington treaty, at heart has been bitterly anti-British and while the official relations remained good, underground activities have been going on all directed at the diminution of British prestige in China, the British agents declare.

The military agents report steady Japanese preparations for warlike activities on the Asiatic continent, the direction of which is not clear. However, the preparations are of considerable magnitude. The Japanese units, though not increased in number, showed augmented ranks of infantry, for instance, brought up to mobilization strength.

Long camel caravans stream across Mongolia toward inner China, carrying stores of munitions, especially machine guns for the Nationalist army.

The presence of soviet instructors is reported from numerous places. They seem to have established a mysterious central camp somewhere near the Chinese wall from where the work of the anti-Japanese and anti-European propaganda is directed.

CHINESE WAR DRUMS NEAR TO SHANGHAI
SHANGHAI, Sept. 23. (Exclusive)—The capture of Nanchang, capital of Kiangsi province, by Cantonese forces, brings the fighting between the Kuikuan-Hyuan border, with Gen. Chang Haishek is reported to be proceeding to direct the Cantonese operations. Sun arrived at Kuikuan yesterday.

Owing to the increasing spread of anti-British propaganda following the Cantonese victories in Central China, the British are planning a great naval demonstration preliminary to intervening. Reports today from London state the Mediterranean destroyer flotilla, consisting of eight war craft and the cruiser Delhi, have been ordered to the China coast.

The local British press demands action against the Canton revolutionaries and is openly critical to the American neutral policy, which is termed the American "do nothing" policy.

Marshal Sun Chuang Feng, commander of the Lower Yangtze area, who is now thoroughly alarmed, is massing 30,000 troops in Kuikuan for the purpose of preventing the southern forces from advancing down the Yangtze to Shanghai.

Marshal Wu Pei-Fu's forces have evacuated practically all of Honan Province and many of his subordinates are switching their allegiance to the south.

Marshal Chang Tso-Lin, also pan-stricken, is rapidly fortifying the Peking area, hoping to stay the southern advance.

The Canton government announces the proposal of lifting the anti-British boycott, but substituting instead heavy surtaxes on imports of foreign goods. The revolutionary bodies in the Shanghai district are in active preparation for the southern occupation of this area.

YOUTH ESCAPES WHEN PAROLE IS REFUSED

PORTLAND (Or.) Sept. 23. (Exclusive)—When Federal Judge Bean refused to parole 17-year-old Wallace W. Sablin, young man who boasts of stealing a car for every night in a month, the boy betook himself to his heels and Federal officers are now looking for him. He had been sentenced to thirteen months in a reformatory. As he was being returned to the County Jail he slipped away from the deputy marshal and into a crowd. The officer could not give chase because of another prisoner.

Parole was asked on the ground that the boy's criminal record was reformed. The court insisted that he should be in care of a government physician.

CANADIAN, IRISH
CHIEFS TO MEETNationalist Leader to See
Free State OfficialDominion Stand at Imperial Parley Causes WorryLondon Conference May Seek to Limit Crown's Power

OTTAWA (Ont.) Sept. 23. (Exclusive)—Canada's attitude toward the London Imperial Conference overshadowed all other political issues. This is due to the announcement that Henry Bourassa, Nationalist leader of Canada, will visit Desmond Fitzgerald of the Irish Free State before going to the empire conference.

Following his talks with the Irish leaders, Mr. Bourassa will cross to London and meet Premier Herbert Asquith. The meeting between Bourassa, Fitzgerald and Asquith will have to do with the drafting of certain resolutions involving changes in the dominion's constitution. It is hoped by the Canada Liberals that Canada, South Africa and the Irish Free State will stand united in backing these demands in the imperial conference sessions. They also are expected to act together in insisting upon the independence of the functions of the King's representative in a dominion, and in defending the independent political status of the dominions.

Conservative leaders of Parliament announce that they are willing to equal the position of the King's Liberal government every possible co-operation and speed up Parliamentary proceedings in order to allow the new Prime Minister to be Canada's representative at the empire conference.

While it has been stated in semi-official circles that Mr. King will not attend the imperial conference, the Liberal leader has said he will not go. Some Conservative chiefs have asserted Mr. King is seeking to avoid attendance and unless he does attend or sends a man of equal status, such as the Minister of Justice, they are of the opinion that the disintegration of the British Empire is in sight.

LONDON WORRIED BY ELECTION IN CANADA
LONDON, Sept. 23. (Exclusive)—Downing street and the Colonial Office are seriously perturbed by the unexpected change in the Canadian government, due to the victory of the Liberals in the recent election. They fear it will react unfavorably to the policies to be proposed at the coming imperial conference.

The return of Mackenzie King, leader of the Liberals, as Premier, has thrown a monkey wrench into the machinery and upset the British plans to keep Canada from joining South Africa in the claim of equal status with the mother country. The situation is more embarrassing for the British government because Mr. King is silent as to whether he will attend the empire conference, which is only a month distant.

Until Mr. King formally becomes Premier of Canada he cannot communicate officially with the Dominion's office here. Neither can the Colonial Office send him an invitation to attend until he is actually Premier, as a matter of British etiquette.

CONFERENCE TO GO ON
However, Downing street asserts its intention of going on with the conference whether Canada is represented or not. It cannot do otherwise, because the delegations from South Africa and other dominions already are en route. This makes the situation only the more embarrassing, and prevents all ideas of a postponement.

The above, in a nutshell, represents the British predicament in view of the Canadian elections. As far as Canadian opinion is concerned, the far more serious turn as the result of the Canadian elections. This arises from a combination of factors, one of which insists on a closer relationship with Great Britain. These include Australia and New Zealand, which have the Japanese problem, and need British protection. The second group, led by South Africa and Ireland, insist in its demands for more independence and equality with England in the comity of nations.

Great Britain hoped Canada would not join the latter group. This explains the British interest in seeing the election of what is represented to be a Conservative government. The constitutional crisis arising out of Lord Byng's refusal to dissolve Parliament for Mr. King, the idea being to oust Mr. King this way and pave the way for the Conservative government of Arthur Meighen.

When the latter failed to get a majority in Parliament, however, and his term came to a disquisition, it was granted, and thus was raised the question whether the Governor-General has a right to differentiate between two candidates.

UNANIMITY BOUGHT
Ever since the Conservative Cabinet in England decided to hold the meeting this autumn, an attempt has been made to obtain unanimity on imperial questions, such as membership of the dominions in the League Council, and dominion relationship with the mother country in respect to the Locarno pact.

For some time open evidence of the disunity of what the Locarno treaty might entail has been noticeable in certain dominions. The failure of Sir Austen Chamberlain to support the candidacy of Canada or Ireland when seats in the Council of the League of Nations were increased has done much to undermine the old traditional policy of monopolizing the direction of the empire's foreign policy.

Some fears are now openly expressed that several of these important questions which were to have been discussed at the conference now must be dropped.

LONG NAVAL CAREER COMES TO CLOSE

Rear-Admiral W. F. Fullam

SCANDAL IN MERCED ON CITY FUNDS

Shortage of $27,000, Said to Exist After Closing of Treasurer's Bank

MERCED, Sept. 23. (P)—An asserted shortage of $27,000 in bonds, supposedly on deposit with J. B. Hart as City Treasurer as security for city funds deposited by him in one of the Merced banks was brought to the attention of the City Trustees last night as an aftermath of the closing of the Farmers' and Merchants' National Bank, of which Mr. Hart is president.

The shortage, the Trustees were informed, involves bonds asserted to have been sold by Mr. Hart to the First National Bank of Fresno, which had been deposited as security for $25,000 of city funds, reduced to $14,800 at the time of the closing of the bank.

In addition, according to the statement to Trustees by City Attorney Henderson, who made the investigation, there is a shortage of approximately $2600 in a city current fund account.

Mr. Hart is under bond and the City Trustees plan no legal action, it was explained, as the matter rests with the bonding company, which will continue the investigation.

CANCER FEDERATION BEING CONSIDERED

LAKE MOHONK (N. Y.) Sept. 23. (P)—A proposal for an international federation of national societies enlisted in the fight against cancer is under consideration this week by the general committee of the Cancer symposium meeting here.

TROOPS SHIFTED AGAINST YAQUIS

Guards at Magdalena to Help Federal Forces

Indian Band Hounded for Towns Along Border

Chieftains Announce "War to Extermination"

GUAYMAS (Son. Mex.) Sept. 23. (P)—Small military guards at Magdalena have been removed to augment the Federal soldiers operating against the Yaqui Indians in Southern Sonora. Similar shifting of troops is evident at Hermosillo, capital of the State, Empalme and Guaymas.

Although the communities are left unprotected, there is little fear of a Yaqui attack as their numerical deficiency makes it impossible for them to hold the towns after capture.

A band of sixty Yaquis are known to be en route to small towns near the international boundary line in search of supplies. Hiding parties yesterday raided a ranch at San Francisco, a village between Ures and Hermosillo, where they took provisions but harmed none. They told ranchmen that their quarrel was with the government, not with the people. Federal authorities expect the Indians between Ures and Hermosillo to strike a blow at the military's communication and transportation facilities but immediate repairs are available in such an event.

In their manifesto, Yaqui chieftains are quoted as saying that when the Yaqui realize that this is to be a war of extermination they will become desperate and a long guerrilla warfare, with all of its usual horrors will result.

WAR CHIEF MAY HEAD ARMY AGAINST YAQUIS

MEXICO CITY, Sept. 23. (Exclusive) Gen. Joaquin Amaro, Secretary of War, is being considered by President Calles as the logical leader of the government's forces against the Yaquis, says El Universal. Graciano, that Gen. Francisco Madero at present in command in Sonora will be replaced by some other officer has been the persistent report emanating from semi-official circles since the government began moving troops north against the Indians.

Dog Ordinance Goes on Ballot in November

Despite the appeal of Rosamunde Roe Wright of the Animal Defense League that the ordinance restricting dogs to owners' premises be placed on the ballot at the city election next May, the City Council yesterday ordered the ordinance placed on the November 2 general election ballot.

The league sponsored the referendum filed against the ordinance, and on account of the large number of propositions on the November ballot, the Animal Defense League asked that the submission to the voters be delayed until May.

The league also asked that the Council repeal the ordinance and then draft a new one that would meet the league's objections to the present one, but this the Council declined to do.

Uniform Code for Building on Coast Planned

SAN JOSE, Sept. 23. (P)—The annual meeting of the Pacific Coast Building Officials conference closed here today with the selection of Phoenix, Ariz., as the next convention city.

C. E. Jenkins, Alhambra, was named president; F. P. Koch, vice-president, and J. E. Mackie, Long Beach, secretary-treasurer.

A tentative draft of a uniform building code for the Pacific Coast was drawn up at the meeting. A request was received from some of the hurricane-stricken communities of Florida for a copy of the code to aid in reconstruction work, and was granted by the convention.

Queen Marie's Royal Consort Has Operation

SINAI (Rumania) Sept. 23. (P)—King Ferdinand has undergone an operation for varicose veins at his country residence here. Physicians announce his general condition is satisfactory.

His illness is not believed to be serious enough to warrant a change in the plans of Queen Marie, who will leave for the United States next month.

ADMIRAL COONTE'S SON DEAD

WASHINGTON, Sept. 23. (P)—Lieut. Kenneth L. Coonts, only son of Rear Admiral Robert H. Coonts, died today.

Lunch Rooms Fight School Eating Order

DENVER, Sept. 23. (P)—Asserting that an order of the Denver School Board compelling students of the high schools to obtain their lunches from the school cafeterias is injuring their business, a number of lunch rooms, confectionaries and school-supply stores have filed a suit against the board in the District Court here.

James H. Hewson, Superintendent of Schools, said that the order had been given in order that responsibility for the students be placed upon the parents if they desired their children to eat elsewhere. The order, he said, had the sanction of the Parent-Teacher Association.

THE NEW HUDSON SUPER SIX

The Brougham

Gives Greatly Improved Gasoline Mileage

New Colors—New Lines—New Comfort, Beauty and Distinction

The most beautiful body in this model that Hudson ever built is combined with the greatest of all Super-Six chassis. Important increase in gasoline mileage is obtained with no sacrifice in power and flexible performance. Refinements and improvements centered around the famous Super-Six principle give greater smoothness, freedom from vibration and closely perfect all the great results of this exclusive Hudson advantage. The flywheel, balanced by precision machines also eliminates vibration possibilities.

Hudson's always brilliant performance is bettered. Power is greater. Pick-up is quicker. Reliability is increased. Motor life is lengthened. Repair needs are even more infrequent.

Hudson design, without resort to accessories, gives owners the top results of gasoline strained before it is delivered to motor, air cleaned and heated, and dirt-free lubrication. Because the entire production of one of America's oldest and most exclusive custom builders is concentrated on Hudson bodies, this custom quality car holds the most amazing price advantage in Hudson history.

Standard Equipment Includes: Automatic Windshield Wipers, Rear View Mirror, Transmission Lock (Shift-In), Radiator Shutters, Motor-Mount, Combination Stop and Tail Light.

French Railway Crash Kills Six and Hurts Score

PARIS, Sept. 23. (AP)—Six persons were killed today when the Lyons express was in a collision just outside the Héry station of the Paris-Montpellier line. Eighteen persons were injured.

Although it was reported this afternoon that there had been nine fatalities, it appeared tonight that the death toll would not exceed six. Although one of those killed was at first reported an American student, the railroad company's announcement said that the victim was a British citizen. Two bodies still are unidentified.

The victim, at first reported to be an American, was believed to be Eugene Montgomery, 21 years of age, while one of the unidentified bodies was believed to be that of his brother.

The Paris edition of the New York Herald says that one of the victims in the wreck is Eugene Montgomery, 24 years of age, a Kansas City lawyer. The newspaper adds that the railway officials declared late tonight that identification was uncertain, although it is known that Mr. Montgomery left Geneva Wednesday night on the way to the United States.

The half that doesn't know how the other half lives generally suspects that it is on borrowed money.—[Boston Transcript.]

Polish Troop Movements on Border Denied

WARSAW (Poland) Sept. 23. (AP)—The Polish War Office today stated to the Associated Press that all rumors concerning the danger of Polish aggression against Lithuania were ridiculous. All Polish regiments are in their normal territory and no troops have been transferred recently.

(The War Office statement was prompted by dispatches from Kovno, Lithuania, yesterday that the Lithuanian government had sent a memorandum to foreign governments charging that military preparations by Poland constituted a menace to the peace of Europe.)

FOSSIL IDENTIFIED

Ohio Fossil Pronounced Mastodon by Carnegie Institute

PITTSBURGH, Sept. 23. (AP)—A fossil found recently on a farm at Johnstown, Licking county, Ohio, was that of an American mastodon, such as roamed this country thousands of years ago, an investigation by the Carnegie Institute has determined. Institute officials said that since the fossil was similar to one already on exhibition at Carnegie Museum here, no effort would be made to acquire it.

Educators Meet to Plan Aid for Abnormal Group

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 23. (AP)—Educators and heads of educational institutions from all parts of the State gathered here today for a two-day conference on the problem of taking more adequate care of crippled and abnormal children.

It was the first of a series of conferences called by Will C. Wood, State Superintendent of Public Instruction, in a campaign to afford uniformity of opportunity to all children of school age.

Wood estimates that there are at least 30,000 abnormal children of school age in the State, and that less than 20 per cent of this total is in school.

Fund for Relief of Iowa Flood Victims Asked

SIoux CITY (Iowa) Sept. 23. (Exclusive)—Acting in accordance with the plans of H. B. Williamson of St. Louis, Mo., national field secretary of the American Red Cross, Mayor Oltman today issued a call for funds for the relief of Northwestern Iowa flood sufferers.

The Red Cross has already expended $5000 in the work here and at Hawarden and has only started on the work, as relief will have to be given to numerous tenant farmers in the flooded area.

The work of treating residents of the flooded districts in Sioux City, Hawarden and elsewhere with typhoid serum is being pushed by the Red Cross and local State health authorities. More than 200 Sioux City persons were treated today, while as many more have been treated at Hawarden.

POSTOFFICE ROBBERS CUT WAY INTO VAULT

KEARNEY (Nebr.) Sept. 23. (AP)—Using an acetylene torch to cut their way through four steel doors of the Kearney postoffice vault, robbers last night rifled the vault's contents and escaped with $14,000 in cash and stamps.

Partners in Business MEET VIOLENT DEATHS

BETHANY (W. Va.) Sept. 23. (AP)—R. J. Cole, 73 years of age, and W. W. Dowden, 63, partners in a coal operation here, are dead, meeting violent deaths within a few hours of each other. Cole committed suicide with a shotgun yesterday and Dowden, a bachelor recluse, was burned to death in a fire which destroyed his home near Weisburg.

BARKER BROS. CONGRATULATE

The Edgewater Club

—on this occasion—marking the entire completion of the club's furnishing and interior decoration—as executed by Barker Bros.—a commission of the utmost beauty and a source of tremendous satisfaction to this store.

Your Children's Future depends upon the education you give them

The study of Music is as important as the study of Literature, say noted Educators
CONSULT A MUSIC TEACHER

Your children are with you but a very few years. Compared to their entire lifetime, you have but a short period in which to mold their personalities.

Give them a chance while they are eager and receptive. Plant the love of good music while their minds and tastes are forming.

Music is one of the most far-reaching influences in their education, say noted educators, for it develops concentration, quick thinking, and memory, besides filling their hearts with a love of the beautiful, which is a fundamental of utmost importance in character building.

Of all musical instruments, the piano is the most satisfactory. It is essentially basic, and its volume of music literature exceeds that of any other instrument. Any average child can readily learn to play.

The KNABE

planoforte is endorsed by the majority of leading music teachers for its purity of tone and perfection of action. Pronounced by the leading Concert Artists "the Peer of All Pianos."

Also pianos of other makes to choose from. Uprights from $295. Grands from $495. Easy terms. You are invited to hear and play them in our Music Rooms

Magnetism Means Life - - -

Twenty years ago Burton Robert Charles was among the few pioneers to realize that Electricity—Electro-Magnetism—and Life, were one. He began the study of disease by using Electricity in different forms. He branched out on a scientific research with different elements.

Perfectocoil the New Life Principle
The Perfectocoil is Burton Robert Charles' patent and is the final result of his research. Countless experiments in his laboratory as well as on living subjects demonstrated beyond all shadow of a doubt that he had won a tremendous victory over the various diseases that mankind is heir to. The sick and debilitated can now find recovery and relief from their numerous ailments by using the Perfectocoil which includes the three great healing elements—

Radium Energy Electro-Magnetism Heat
You can be one hundred per cent efficient if you use the Perfectocoil. It stimulates and improves the circulation, eliminates the poisons from the system thus clearing the blood and helps to give a normal and balanced energy. A Perfectocoil will surely be in every home as soon as its merits are recognized. Disease will in time become a thing of the past.

Free Lectures Claire Charles, known to hundreds of thousands of newspaper readers, lectures at the Charles Radium Laboratory, 1614 West Washington Boulevard, on the work being done by her husband, Burton Robert Charles, at 4 P.M. every Tuesday evening. Come and hear her. It will cost you nothing.

Free Demonstration Treatments A demonstration treatment of the "Perfectocoil" is yours for the asking. Come to the laboratory as soon as you can. But if this is not convenient, call BEACON 2273, or write, and a demonstration will be made in the privacy of your own home. Above all, act now. Why suffer? Use the coupon.

Like a Bit of Fairyland Set Down in the Marts of Trade, Westlake Park appears from an airplane at an elevation of several thousand feet. While Angelenos are generally appreciative of the beauties that surround them, it is doubtful if they realize the charm of the parks almost in the heart of the city. 715 The Battle of Roanoke Island (Continued).

BEFORE MIDNIGHT OF FEBRUARY 7, 1862, GENERAL BURNSIDE HAD LANDED NEARLY 11,000 UNION SOLDIERS ON ROANOKE ISLAND. THE WATER WAS TOO SHALLOW FOR THE SMALL BOATS TO REACH THE LAND AND THE TROOPS WERE OBLIGED TO WADE ASHORE.

THE NEXT MORNING THE FEDERALS BEGAN AN ADVANCE, THROUGH MUD AND RAIN, ACROSS A REGION OF TREACHEROUS SWAMPS TOWARD THE ENTRENCHMENTS IN THE INTERIOR OF THE ISLAND. THE MARCH WAS MADE UNDER THE CONSTANT FIRE OF CONFEDERATE SHARPshooters WHOSE DEADLY MARKSMANSHIP TOLD SEVERELY ON THE UNION COLUMNS.

AT LAST THEY CAME WITHIN VIEW OF THE EARTHWORKS AND THE UNION TROOPS DASHED FORWARD TO TAKE THE POSITION AT THE POINT OF THE BAYONET. AFTER A FIERCE COMBAT THE "STARS AND STRIPES" WAS PLANTED ON THE RAMPART, WHILE THE DEFENDERS RETREATED TOWARD NAGSHEAD ON THE OTHER SIDE OF ROANOKE SOUND.

ONE AFTER ANOTHER THE CONFEDERATE REDOUTS WERE SEIZED AND THE UNION TROOPS PRESSING ON TO ATTACK THE FORTRESS AT THE NORTHERN END OF THE ISLAND. THE FLAG OF TRUCE FROM COL. BURNSIDE'S CAMP ARRANGED, SHAW SURRENDERED HIS MEN AND BURNSIDE WAS IN POSSESSION OF ROANOKE ISLAND.

These daily history strips make a unique pictorial history of America.

Hundreds are clipping them daily and pasting them in scrapbooks.

ARMISTICE IN NICARAGUA

Negotiations Bring Lull in Revolutionary Struggle;
Peace Conference Called for Next Week

MANAGUA (Nicaragua) Sept. 23. (R)—Peace negotiations, which have been in progress for some time to end the revolutionary struggle now going on in Nicaragua, resulted today in the acceptance by the Liberal revolutionists of the terms of an armistice proposed by the de facto government of Gen. Chamorro.

A peace conference to end the fratricidal struggle will be held next week.

The latest government announcement says that two tanks, in the form of converted tractors, were captured yesterday at El Bluff, which has been the scene of desperate fighting for some time. It has been necessary to place Bluefields and the vicinity on short rations. No boats have been able to reach the city for the past month because of the fighting.

As early as the 13th inst. Gen. Chamorro directed the capture of the United States was willing to lend its good offices to assist in the re-though there, too, suffrage was a privilege limited to certain classes. Switzerland is regarded as having the distinction of maintaining such a liberal form of government for a greater number of consecutive years than any other nation. England early began its movement toward democratic government and was the first of the kingdoms of Western Europe to set up a really liberal constitutional monarchy.

The birth of the French republic, following the French Revolution, and that of the republic of the United States, following the War of the American Revolution, occurred very close together. When democracy jumped across the Atlantic and established the most liberal form of government then known in the world, it was regarded as a disastrous experiment. It seemed so at first. The first French effort had a set back when Napoleon set up a new empire and it was not until the last of the Bourbons had fallen, not so long ago, that a real republic was formed.

LATIN-AMERICA SLOWER
South and Central America did not immediately embrace democracy. Brazil and Mexico, the largest of these States, retained monarchical forms until after some of the lesser States were set up. Haiti had an Emperor, the infamous Christophe. Finally, however, the Western Hemisphere, except for Canada, which enjoyed a liberal form of government where the people voted, became a hemisphere of republics.

The Orient remained in imperial splendor, the home of absolute monarchy where the rulers were regarded as occupying their thrones by divine right. India was a conglomeration of despotism. China and Japan were so strictly imperial that the people were not allowed to look upon their Emperors, so sacred were they. Russia, half Occidental, half Oriental in character, was an absolute despotism. Germany and Spain, especially Germany, were late survivors of the system in Europe. The Scandinavian kingdoms early became constitutional states.

TURN EASTWARD
But now, observers here note, democracy seems to have turned its face to the East. Russia and China, the latter being the most populous nation in the world, burst into ferment and threw off the yoke of despotism. Russia established the most far-reaching and complete democracy the world has ever seen. The soviet system turned over not only the reins of government but the ownership of all property of whatever nature to the people as a whole. Industry and trade were government monopolies. Turning to the East, democracy proved a more thorough leveller than ever she had in the West.

In China, the new Chinese Republic was not so successful in breaking down all barriers but reports of recent date indicate that there is a strong movement there to institute the soviet system. The gyip the Governors of local Provinces have the territories they held under the old regime has not only prevented complete realization of a democratic form of government but has caused bitter civil war. The Chinese Bolsheviks, under Russian tutelage, declare they will bring this to an end before long.

While Japan remains an empire, the despotism of the Mikado has given way to constitutional monarchy and popular suffrage. The phenomenon of the spread of democracy in India is perhaps the most remarkable of all. Although a domain claimed and long held by Great Britain and dominated in local Provinces by maharajahs, nazims, gajdars, and rajas, India is in a fair way to loose and become sovietized. The rebellion led by Gandhi, which resulted in his incarceration by the British authorities, was but a forerunner of later developments. The soviet idea has spread to lesser eastern states. Half of the people of the world now are either under this extreme form of popular government or are on the road to it, vast numbers desiring it.

MEANWHILE, THE OCCIDENT JOINS IN the reversal and appears drifting away from democracy. Perhaps the most outstanding case is that of Italy where Il Duce Benito Mussolini has become infinitely more despotic than the Italian king who ruled a liberal constitutional monarchy. Probably not since the Roman Emperor has Italy known such absolutism in her government. In Spain, another liberal constitutional monarchy, Gen. Primo De Rivera has mounted the throne of the dictator and rules with an iron hand. It will be remembered that not many years ago it was widely reported that King Alfonso was considering abdicating and running for President of a Spain turned into a republic.

The cables every little while bring reports of growing strength in Germany to depose the newly formed German republic and set either the old Emperor or the Crown Prince on the throne. In Hungary Admiral Horthy is a supreme dictator. Even in France the Orlanist party cherishes the hope of setting a Bourbon King back on the throne. The movement started some time ago, in a small way, on this hemisphere. In Cuba Cabrera was dictator of Guatemala for twenty-two years and since then other dictators have ruled such nations as Mexico and Central American States for longer or shorter periods. Porfirio Diaz of Mexico furnishes a notable example.

Opinions differ as to the United States but many can be found who declare that the domination of many offices by rich men and by great industrial interests indicate a tendency toward a type of dictatorship of government which but remotely resembles the democracy of earlier days. Certainly the political boss is not unknown and the recent investigations into the Pennsylvania and Illinois primaries which revealed attempted control by wealthy interests to the end that the laws of the land could be dictated, not by the people but by a small group, are declared by some to show a strongly reactionary tendency.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 23. (R)—The twenty-two national prohibition administrators in conference here with Assistant Secretary Andrews of the Treasury were urged today by the dry chief to encourage, as far as possible under State laws, the local enforcement of the prohibition law by county officers.

The general said such a plan was in effect successfully in forty California counties and that while prohibition prosecutions cost these counties $31,000 in six months the counties in turn collected $44,000 in fines and penalties.

Andrews urged administrators to seek similar action by local officials in all States which have prohibition laws permitting it.

FOLLOWING OUR HEROIC PIONEERS

While certain episodes in the streets of Paris gave disconcerting evidence of the prejudice that exists in France against Americans, a harrowing party of French and American schoolboys, winners in the oratorical contest sponsored by the American Good Will Association, were making an interesting and delightful trip across our continent in the footsteps of the daring Frenchmen who explored so great an extent of the West.

If you have read the vivid books of Francis Parkman—do any other history combine so wonderfully scholarly research with a fascinating narrative style—you know how large a part the French missionaries, traders and soldiers from Quebec played in the exploration of the great heart of North America. To mention only a few, there were Father Jogues, the heroic missionary, who died a martyr among the Mohawks to whom he wished to preach the gospel; Joliet and Marquette, who first saw the Upper Mississippi, and whose rude map of the great Northwest drawn from memory is still in existence in Paris; La Salle and his fearless lieutenant, Rouxy, who first drestied of a great empire in the valley of the Mississippi and underwent astonishing hardships in pioneering through that then savage wilderness; La Mothe Cadillac, whose name is forever associated with the great city of Detroit, which has grown up on the site of this lonely palisade; Du Luth, whose explorations in the Lake Superior country are commemorated in the name of Duluth; Father Hennepin, who first saw St. Anthony's Falls; the Verendrye brothers, who pushed far enough west to see the peaks of the Rocky Mountains; Nicolet, Radisson and Groselliers, who ranged the country that is now Wisconsin and Minnesota.

To many of the boys, French and American, who have been traveling along the roads these courageous men first blazed through the forests of the West, the names of most of the pioners of old France were probably unfamiliar until the contests of the American Good Will Association led them to the study of that romantic period. Few grown-up Americans even realize how important was the work of the French pioneers, not in Canada alone, but in the territory that we now call the United States. The young travelers will return from their journey fully conscious of the importance of this early historical link between France and America. It would be helpful to us all at a time when a traditional friendship is being subjected to so unfortunate a strain if we read again the story of those far-off days and came to realize the part that these hardy, far-sighted, adventurous Frenchmen took in opening paths into the wilderness where now live millions of prosperous American citizens.—[Youth's Companion.]

SCIENTISTS FIND NEW RAYS

GENEVA, Sept. 23. (Exclusive)—Two Swiss scientists, Drs. Kolvomer and Desauls, who have been living in a tent for the past month on the summit of Mount Montblanc, at an altitude of 13,496 feet, are making astronomical observations and have made a remarkable scientific discovery. They have found that a certain group of stars send out extraordinary rays of light, the radioactive force of which is far stronger than Roentgen rays. The scientists hope to capture and employ these rays for scientific medical purposes. The scientists, owing to the cold weather, were obliged to interrupt their investigations and descended to Interlaken.

for the controversy wherein it was stated that the Pan-American Petroleum Company had been denied drilling permits by the Morones ministry, thus decreasing the oil revenue and incurring financial displeasure. The article was at first claimed to have been traced to an official of Pani's ministry and this angered Morones. El Imparcial states that the information was given by Pani to Hilary Branch, legal representative of the Pan-American Petroleum Company, Mexican subsidiary of the Pan-American, a statement which Branch denies. STORY OF ELIZABETH

by her mother
Anne Austin

(Copyright, 1935, by United States and Great Britain by North American Newspaper Alliance. All rights reserved.)

Married at 17 years of age to a fellow college student, Anne Austin becomes the mother of Elizabeth while still earning her way through school. Her baby at 16 months has a vocabulary of 150 words. Anne leaves school to teach so that her husband can finish college and the baby learns to take care of herself and amuse herself. Anne undergoes an appendicitis operation which takes all of her money and before she is out of the hospital her husband leaves her. Teaching again, she finds that three-year-old Elizabeth has learned to spell from grocery boxes and has taught herself arithmetic with dominoes. Anne enters newspaper work and is forced to place her baby in a convent where she is well taken care of and allowed to attend school. At the end of the term the four-year-old insists on taking the "examinations" with the rest of the first grade and passes to the second grade. Anne's work wins her a place as a writer on a Kansas City paper and there Elizabeth is reluctantly admitted to the third grade. Shortly afterward Anne wins another promotion, becoming editor of People's Popular Monthly in Des Moines. There the school refuses to admit Elizabeth until she is six, and the child goes to a convent, passing to the fourth grade at five. It is discovered that she reads five times as rapidly as the average reader. At Iowa City, where Elizabeth's mother is taking summer work in the State University, the five-year-old girl passes an intelligence test which shows her mental age to be more than double her chronological age.

VIII. Fighting School Regulations. In September, 1919, just before her sixth birthday, Elizabeth enrolled in a Des Moines public school in the fourth grade, after she had been subjected to rigid examinations by the skeptical principal, and I had high hopes that she was settled at last. But it was scarcely six weeks before another change of residence seemed advisable. I had been ill all during August, and specialists had told me that an operation would be necessary. And I had been working too hard, they told me. In the latter part of October the editor for whom I had worked at Waco wired me to come to Beaumont, where he had bought a paper. By this time he owned four papers—at Waco, Beaumont, Fort Arthur and Orange. I was offered a very good salary as a sort of assistant editorial director of the chain, and as feature reporter on the Beaumont paper.

My heart yearned toward newspaper work; telling women how to can vegetables, make salads and raise babies had, after the excitement of newspaper work, grown slightly monotonous. And if I was going to be seriously ill, I wanted to be in Texas among my friends.

GOES TO BEAUMONT. I accepted the Texas offer and about the first of November arrived in Beaumont with my 6-year-old daughter. As soon as I tried to enter her in school we ran afoul of the Texas law which sets seven years as the minimum age at which a child can enter school. The school to which I took her uncompromisingly refused to accept a 6-year-old child and scoffed at the idea that she could be in the fourth grade. Finally I took the case before the Beaumont Board of Education, and so favorable an impression did Elizabeth make that the trustees voted to suspend the rules in her favor. A thorough examination showed she was ready for "high fourth-grade work."

But she did not enter school under the happiest of auspices, naturally. She was an unwanted child; her classmates were from four to six years older than she, and the teacher feared complications in discipline.

Her room was crowded—forty-five pupils—and she certainly had no time to be cooing a baby to study. Elizabeth felt antagonism on every hand. The teacher didn't want her, the children laughed at her, teased her for being a baby. And she did look like a pink-cheeked infant, visiting an older brother or sister in the fourth grade.

It was only a few weeks, however, before Elizabeth completely won over the teacher, Miss Althea Smith, who came to see me at the hotel, where Elizabeth and I were living.

RAISES CLASS AVERAGE. "She doesn't give any trouble at all," Miss Smith told me, her eyes as fond as a mother's as they rested on Elizabeth, who had climbed into her lap. "And she is leading her class already. It's good for the others, to have a baby making better grades than they do. The class average has been raised at least 25 per cent since she came."

"Isn't she every naughty?" I asked, memories of my own school-teaching days fresh in my mind. "Didn't she tell you about the time I scolded her?" Miss Smith asked in surprise. "She was whispering to the little girl in front of her, and I rapped on the desk, calling out her name in the same tone of voice that I use toward the other children. She looked up, her eyes big with fright; then her little face began to pucker up, like a baby's, and before I could say anything more, she was running down the aisle toward me, tears rolling down her cheeks. She flung herself into my lap, put her arms around my neck, and cried as if her heart were broken. The other children started to giggle, but I shut them right up."

"I rocked her back and forth in my arms, feeling as if I had a baby of my own at last, and when her tears had stopped flowing, I kissed her, told her that she was forgiven, and sent her back, all smiles, to her work. That was the first and only time I have had to discipline her."

ELIZABETH'S "BLINDNESS." One day the principal of the school telephoned me at the office of the Journal, and very seriously informed me that he thought Elizabeth should be taken out of school, since she was undoubtedly going blind. Almost hysterical with fright, I hung up the receiver and rushed to the schoolhouse.

The principal explained to me that Elizabeth held her book so close to her eyes that he was convinced that she could hardly see. "But she holds her book at a normal distance from her eyes at home," I protested, weeping with fright. "I'll show you," he said gravely, and led the way to the fifth-grade room, to which Elizabeth had just been promoted. She no longer had the sympathetic, child-loving, Miss Smith for a teacher.

We paused at the door, and dramatically he pointed to the child, busily studying from a big geography book. "See! The book is within four inches of her eyes."

I stared for a moment, then laughed aloud with relief. "It's the desk!" I gasped. "She is so much too short for an 11-year-old child's desk that her nose barely reaches the top of it. Of course her eyes are close to her book. She can't manage any other way, in that tall desk."

The principal, deeply abashed but still skeptical of Elizabeth and her eyesight and everything connected with her, though she had won her promotion with the highest grades in her class, had a desk from the first-grade room brought up and installed for her. Her "blindness" was miraculously cured.

TESTS FIFTEEN YEARS OLD. Beaumont instituted the year of our arrival a psychological department, with Miss Clara Mallory as "supervisor of tests and measurements" of the intelligence of school children. Fortunately, Miss Mallory knew of Elizabeth's record-breaking test in the University of Iowa, and took sincere interest in the child's development. When we had been in Beaumont a year and ten months, Miss Mallory gave Elizabeth the Terman tests—the Leland Stanford revision of the Binet-Simon tests, which she had taken in Iowa City. Children are tested yearly, that their growth and development may be noted.

I quote Miss Mallory's report, a copy of which she gave me: "This is to certify that I have given Elizabeth Benson the Terman intelligence test. She is 7 years 3 months old, and has a mental age of 15 years and 6 months, and so has an I. Q. (intelligence quotient) of 302 plus. Her work corroborates this, as she is in classes far above children of her own age and generally ranks highest in the class. (Signed) Clara Mallory, Supervisor, Tests and Measurements, Beaumont City Schools."

OPERATION NECESSARY. The report carries a date of September 2, 1921. In June Elizabeth had been promoted to the high sixth grade, after having been in school three years. But those two terms in Beaumont cannot be dismissed so lightly, since they held far more drama than that enacted in the schoolrooms.

While she was still 8 years of age, the predicted operation became an acute necessity, and, for a number of reasons, I chose a hospital at Galveston, Texas, rather than Beaumont sanatorium. When I was making frantic preparations for my departure—for departure was likely to prove disastrous—the question of what should be done with Elizabeth came up. There was no time to make arrangements for her to board with a private family, and I know none that I could trust her with. "Please let me stay on here at the

ASSURANCE OF CORRECTNESS

The REASONS

are quite definite—why we lay particular stress on our fall suits at fifty-dollars

First of all...

Because we have included in generous measure all elements which combine to make a perfectly balanced suit.

Because we have been exceptionally exacting in the planning of these suits.

Because we have demanded that trustworthy mills execute the fabrics—that master designers conceive the stylings—that expert craftsmen needle the woollens.

Because we know that more and more of our patrons find them, each new season, genuinely meritorious.

But, most of all...

Because we have put in the inner tailoring we know to be so utterly imperative to real clothes goodness.

We especially commend them to your interest, these perfectly balanced fall suits at $50

OFFER $750,000 FOR FIGHT HERE

A. T. Jergins and J. R. McKinnin, Long Beach oil magnates, late last night wired Jack Dempsey and Gene Tunney that they would hang up a $750,000 purse for a return fight, to be held in an open-air arena near Los Angeles before January 30, next. If the offer is accepted and contracts are signed, they stated they were prepared to post a certified check of $100,000 to insure the match.

The only stipulation was that the fight should be for the heavyweight championship of the world and that the number of rounds would be decided by the California State Boxing Commission. Neither Jergins nor McKinnin has ever held promoters' commissions in this state.

The fight would have been a force-out and striking out Art Shinn. Score: LOS ANGELES ANGELS 7, OAKS 5.

REDS TIE PHILS IN 15 INNINGS

Cincinnati Unable to Annex Lengthy Struggle

Darkness Halts Contest With Teams Locked 6-6

Boston Continues Streak and Wallops Pirates

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 23. (AP)—The battling Cincinnati Reds, hanging desperately on the tail of the league-leading St. Louis Cardinals, today forced the Phillies to go fifteen innings, before darkness finally decided the contest, neither a victor, with the score 6-6.

Carlson was invincible in the pinches and showed no signs of weakening under the Ohioans' attack, although the game went well over two hours. Donohue also held the Phillies scoreless after the eighth inning, when they took the lead by a two-run rally, only to lose it in the same inning by the tying Cincinnati score.

It was a nip-and-tuck game throughout. Carlson was in a couple of tight places in the overtime innings, but bore down at critical times.

Dressen made four of the Reds' fifteen hits. Walker had three, Southern and Pipp hit home runs.

The Cardinals, who today have a two-and-a-half-game lead with only three more games to be played, A Cincinnati loss today would have forced the Reds to win their three remaining games, while St. Louis was losing three in order to tie for the gap. The St. Louis fray with New York was postponed until Friday because of the Dempsey-Tunney fight in Philadelphia.

HOPPE TAKES 11 FIELDS

Jackie Contender for Lightweight Championship If He Beats Dick Tonight

If Jackie Fields beats Dick Hoppe in the main event at the Hollywood American Legion stadium tonight he becomes a serious contender for the lightweight championship of the world. If he doesn't then he has to beat some second-raters until he qualifies to get in the front ranks with the best 135-pounders in California.

It has been a year since a lightweight fight has attracted the attention that is being given the Hoppe-Fields fight. Should Jackie get bowled over by Dick, and that is what Hoppe is going to try and do, the light will be a sad disappointment to the fans who have been waiting for a fight of this kind.

The stadium will be packed because the fight has local interest and lots of color. Fields has been a budding prospect for championship honors so long that his ardent admirers believe it time that he blossom out and fight some one who means something in the ring.

Rubby Goldstein fights Paul Demsey tonight and gives the fight fans a well-chance to compare the capabilities of the boy who was bowled over by Ace Hickins but got back and fought a six-round win and one of his prospective opponents, Fields or Hoppe.

Hoppe would fight Goldstein but it is very doubtful if Fields would be permitted to meet such a slugger as Ruby at this time. Dick wants Goldstein in case he wins from Jackie.

The Hollywood show is a pip. The card is one of the best that Tom Gally has served as chief of the Legion since he took over. He has put some appetizing offerings on the slate menu.

Besides the whale of a main event that promises to be a sensation, there are four fights that feature boys who are stars outside of the main-event of two. He said the fight since practice signs of overwork. The candidates showed to better advantage yesterday than any day since practice began. Harry Schneiderman of Kelo, Wash., captain of last year's freshman team, replaced Douglas Bonney as center. He may bid fair to give Bonney a run for the position, which includes among its other candidates Ronald Lawson of Lowell, Wash.

Jackie Sherman and Frankie Inoue in one four-rounder, while Benny Diaz fights Alex Arriola in the curtain-raiser.

set in motion last night with the arrival of the officers and directors. The vanguard of the delegates—expected to number in all 5000—was met at the Santa Fe Station at 6 p.m. by welcoming committees from the local and state organizations and escorted to the Roslyn Hotel, convention headquarters.

Included among them was Mrs. E. A. Boole of New York, president of the national organization, and Mrs. Margaret C. Munna, treasurer, and twenty other officers and directors.

MANY DUE TODAY

They immediately went into conference with the local convention committee to go over routine matters preliminary to meetings of the executive committee and official board this afternoon.

DAYS PROGRAM

The program for today follows:

8:30 a.m.—Bible study. Key word for Wright Law Campaign. Corresponding secretary and literature bureau. Mrs. Allen Hale.

9:30 a.m.—Morning session. Mrs. Hattie C. Young, president. Mrs. Clara B. Blodgett, secretary. Mrs. Helen B. Young, young people's branch. Mrs. Hattie C. Young, local secretary.

TRAFFIC RULES' AIM EXPLAINED

Officer in Lecturing Over KHL Says Police Try Not to Persecute

Calling attention of motorists to the fact that street cars carry fully 75 per cent of the traffic in congested areas, and that pedestrians and other automobile drivers and their passengers, Serp. E. L. Johnson of the police bureau of public safety continued his series of talks on traffic accident prevention over KHL yesterday.

"Efficiency in street traffic regulation must be sought in two ways," he said. "First, provision for streets and roadways adapted to all requirements; second, the adjustment of traffic to make the best possible use of admittedly inadequate highways, where economic conditions make the betterment of these highways impossible."

CREMATIONISTS IN CONVENTION TODAY

The tenth annual convention of the Cremation Association of America will convene at 9 a.m. today at the Alexandria, with an address of welcome by Mayor Crier following the adjournment of the business meeting of a convention in inspection tour of Forest Lawn Memorial Park. Evergreen Cemetery and the County Crematory will be made by the delegates. At 1:30 p.m. a luncheon will be served in the dining hall of the Alexandria. The evening session will be held at 7:30 o'clock.

VAN OWEN STREET PAVING ACCEPTED

After weeks of consideration and investigation, the Board of Public Works yesterday accepted the recent paving of Van Owen street from Balboa street to the western city limits on the filing with the board of a bond of $15,000 by the paving material company to protect the city against any repairs on the street during the next two years. The improvement cost nearly $200,000, and property owners had protested to the board against accepting the work.

KINGS COUNTY GRAPE SHIPMENTS HIGHER

HANFORD, Sept. 23.—Fifteen hundred carloads of fresh grapes, mostly Muscates, already have been shipped from Kings county this season. This is an increase over shipments to date last year, the banner year for grape shipments. Last year 3,200 carloads were sent East and thirty carloads to San Francisco and Los Angeles. Shipments are slow at present, owing to a slump in the eastern markets due to a glutted market, yet thirty carloads went out of the county yesterday.

EVIDENCE CROWDING LIQUOR STOREROOM

"The liquor storeroom has more than its quota," commented Police Chief Davis yesterday following the arrest of Tony Pollicia at 4415 Seventh avenue by Officers Washburn, Campbell and Heath of the vice squad. According to Chief Davis so many arrests for liquor law violations have been made in recent weeks that the police department is having difficulty finding a place to store evidence pending the outcome of court hearings.

McADOO TO TALK

It was announced last night that William Gibbs McAdoo, former Secretary of the Treasury, will address the National convention Sunday night, as will also ex-Gov. Pat Neff of Texas. The speakers will each deliver two addresses alternating with each other at the First Methodist Church and the Baptist Temple. This was arranged, according to Mrs. R. Scott Durkin, publicity chairman, when it was decided the First Methodist Church, where the convention sessions will be held, would not accom-

PANACEA IN CO-OPERATION

Dairy Association Official Here Holds Self-Help Better Than Government Farm Aid

Business to the amount of more than $2,800,000,000 was done by farmers' co-operative associations throughout the United States last year and the figure will run even higher in 1926, according to Charles W. Holman of Washington, secretary of the National Co-operative Milk Producers' Federation, who arrived at the Alexandria yesterday.

Mr. Holman is visiting various local branches of the federation in different parts of the West. In Los Angeles he will confer with the executive of the California Milk Producers' Association, which is the Southern California member of the national organization.

"During my California visit I have conferred with the authorities of the University at Berkeley, which has extended an invitation to the organization to conduct their American Institute of Co-operation at Berkeley next summer," said Mr. Holman. "This institute, which was organized only a few years ago, offers a short course in co-operative business management and is conducted each year at a different university. We have several invitations for next year and have not as yet decided which one to accept."

CO-OPERATION WINS

The co-operative movement in agriculture has made a remarkable growth in this country during the last fifteen years and at this moment it is more highly developed in many respects than in any other country except New Zealand. Mr. Holman said "More than 2,500,000 farmers throughout the country are now represented in the 10,500 local co-operative associations scattered from coast to coast. These associations produce a commodity produced on the farm has its association."

POLICE SURGEONS TO MEET HERE IN 1927

The 1927 convention of the Association of Fire and Police Surgeons of America will come to Los Angeles, according to word received here yesterday from Police Surgeon Goodrich, in New York City. Dr. Goodrich was elected a vice-president of the association. About 500 surgeons are expected to attend the coming convention in Los Angeles.

BUS COMPANY SUE

Miss C. Adams of Santa Barbara yesterday filed suit for $10,000 in the United States District Court against the Motor Travel Bureau, Yellowknife, and C. L. Palmer, driver of an overland bus. She asserted that she was permanently disabled when she was struck against the top of a bus when it struck a bump at Las Vegas, Nev., on June 30, last.

CALIFORNIA HEADS LIST

California stands at the top of the list of States in farm co-operative development. Mr. Holman said, the California Fruit Growers' Exchange has long been regarded as a model in agricultural organization ever since it was formed.

PAIR FREED IN RUM CASE BY MIX-UP

Arresting Officers Fail to Appear as Witnesses on Liquor-Running Charge

The case against William Kaplin and Robert Lamar, two rum-runners, charged with possession of 200 gallons of alcohol, was dismissed yesterday by Municipal Judge Turney when the arresting officers in the case failed to appear in court as witnesses.

The pair were arrested on the 7th inst., while driving on San Fernando Road near the northern city limits. At the time they were transporting forty-five-gallon cans of alcohol, according to police.

Motorcycle officers Peterhoff, Pflin and George made the arrests, according to the records in Judge Turney's court, no subpoenas had been issued notifying the officers to appear.

Police Chief Davis immediately detailed Inspector of Detectives Finlinson to investigate and find why the officers had failed to appear in court.

At the time the case was called no prosecutor representing the State was in court, it was said, and the case was dismissed approximately two minutes after the afternoon session had been called to order.

CRUISE ENDS IN JAIL

Sailor Trio to Answer Charge of Appropriating Automobile

Three jolly sailors, out on a lark, cruised through Hollywood, where the attraction of civilian clothes wrecked their barque, according to Dep. Dist. Atty. Fisher, who yesterday issued a complaint against them for joy riding. The three are Guy Wood, Leon Taylor and Foy Pierce.

The story told Mr. Fisher was that the three sailors went to the rooms of a Hollywood motion-picture producer and after a lively evening, changed from sailor's attire to their civilian's, and "adopted" an automobile belonging to R. W. Abbott. It was reported that three upped at their ship, at San Pedro, but not in uniform. They were all arrested.

Drought in Queensland, Australia, this year, caused the loss of many sheep.

Tainted Cash Gains Cashier Weekly Pay

Official cognizance of tainted money was taken by State Industrial Accident Commissioner Carrigan yesterday when he ordered the payment of $9.88 a week temporary disability from December 3, 1925, to March 31, 1926, to Mrs. Dolly H. Case, 410 Martello avenue, Pasadena.

Two months ago, according to Mrs. Case, had resulted in the lowering of her physical vitality. As cashier for a motion-picture theater operated by Harry J. Wain, she said, she handled a great deal of money in various degrees of uncleanness.

As result of coming in contact with such money she suffered an infection of the lip, which developed into an abscess, she declared, and her physical condition suffered.

Commissioner Carrigan's order was made against the Travelers Insurance Company, which carries Wain's insurance.

Japan is spending $250,000 for construction of several new radio stations.

FACES TRIAL FOR HOLD-UP AT THEATER

Suspect Held to Answer in Attack on Watchman and Safe Robbery Attempt

Robert M. Snyder, former employee of the Pantheas Theater Company, who last Labor Day was arrested in an attempt to blow the safe at the Pantheas playhouse, was ordered held to answer in Superior Court by Municipal Judge Samuel Blake at the conclusion of his preliminary hearing yesterday.

Bail was set at $5000. Snyder also was charged with assault with a deadly weapon in the District Attorney's complaint against him.

Testimony at his hearing was to the effect that he had secreted himself in the theater after the evening's performance had been concluded and, after binding Louis Alper, night watchman for the the-ter, made preparations to crack the safe, which contained approximately $30,000. Alper, however, succeeded in freeing himself from his bonds and hit Snyder over the head with a hammer.

Snyder returned the attack by beating Alper with an iron rod, it was testified. Snyder finally overpowered, however, and held for Police Officer R. V. Savage, who had been summoned from Central Police Station to arrest him.

IMPERIAL VALLEY TO STAGE WINTER FAIR

BRAWLEY, Sept. 23.—Imperial Valley's midwinter fair, to be held here December 1 to 8, will include more extensive exhibits than any previous year, according to the statement today of Secretary Van Pelt. The main exhibit tent, eighty feet longer than last year, will be the largest canvas ever erected in the valley. The agricultural commission, in co-operation with valley ranchers, is growing a wide variety of fall crops, to be on the claim that the Imperial Valley exhibit includes the most diverse collection of fresh vegetables and field crops that can be assembled anywhere in the world in the month of December.

SCHULBERG IN GOOD

Gets New Contract for Old With Paramount; Anna Q. Nilsson Arrives in New York from Sweden; Flood Directs Asher Star

BY GRACE KINGSLY

The proverbial wolf may just as well look for another door besides that of H. P. Schulberg. The Paramount official yesterday received official word that he is to have complete executive control as associate producer of all West Coast production activities of Paramount for the next five years at least. Just as if the new contract were not a substitute for the five-year contract which that producer signed with Paramount last November, when he was permitted to terminate the contract prior to December 31 of the present year if it so desired. It was in appreciation of Schulberg's exceptional success in discharge of the duties of his position that the contract was renewed by Paramount. The new agreement established for his full five-year term.

The new agreement established for his full five-year term.

Just as if the new contract were not a substitute for the five-year contract which that producer signed with Paramount last November, when he was permitted to terminate the contract prior to December 31 of the present year if it so desired. It was in appreciation of Schulberg's exceptional success in discharge of the duties of his position that the contract was renewed by Paramount. The new agreement established for his full five-year term.

Foreign Director Begins

Production began yesterday at the Warner Brothers' Vitaphone studio on the first picture to be directed in America by Michael Curtiz. With Hal Mohr at the camera and H. Blanche assisting in directing the movements of several hundred colorists of a South African settlement, Curtiz called his first "camera" on "The Third Degree."

Tom Santschi was yesterday added to the cast of the picture, which includes the stars, Dolores Costello, Louise Dresser, Jason Robards, Rocke Fellers, Kate Price and Harry Todd.

For the Marjory and Graham Baker wrote the adaptation of the novel Charles Klein play.

East Accepts "Bob" Styles of Hollywood

W. Willard Isaacs, general manager of the Weaver-Jackson Company, hair-dressing specialists of this city yesterday returned from an extended tour of the East, where he has been studying the latest style trend of hair dressing.

Mr. Isaacs reports that only now are the larger eastern hair dressers installing such modern equipment as electric hair dryers which have been in use in Los Angeles and Hollywood for the past five or six years.

"The 'bob' is here to stay," stated Mr. Isaacs, "and in the larger eastern metropolitan areas such as Chicago a decided trend is being noticed toward individually designed bobs each woman endeavoring to out do the other in striking effects."

A feature which is causing a nationwide interest is the advent of a liquid hair wax for marcelling, purporting to place from three to five days longer.

"The motion pictures still dictate the hair style in the smaller communities," continued Mr. Isaacs, "with the Colleen Moore type running a very close second to the now nationally popular Corinne Griffith bob."

Symphonic Jazz Comes Easy to These Four Men

The Playhouse Symphonette Orchestra recently installed by Louis O. Maclean at his Playhouse Theater is said to be creating considerable comment among the patrons. There are only four members in the orchestra but each musician is an artist of unusual talent, their music ranging from the classical to the jazz.

The Symphonette Orchestra is under direction of Cecil Stewart, leader and pianist. Other members include: Alvin Karp, who plays the marimbaphone, xylophone, piano and organ; Jerry Fisher, violinist; and Fred W. Ick, playing the 'cello, saxophone and clarinet.

For the engagement of Louis O. Maclean's New York comedy hit "Crude Snatchers," which opens its engagement on Monday evening the orchestra will play during intermissions a highly symphonic jazz arrangement which will consist of selections from musical comedies which have played in Los Angeles during the past two years.

Kansas Grows 'Em

A man from north of Lawrence gave the hog-calling connoisseurs at Kansas City a new thrill recently when he tried out his talents before them. This blood-curdling scream startled the experts and they immediately nicknamed the contestant "Father."

It is beginning to appear that hog-calling is an extremely complex art. It is said that the acoustical of the hogs in Jefferson county tend to develop hog-calling there to a degree not found elsewhere. It is truly predicted that when the winner of the national prize is announced it will be found, if he is not at present a resident of Jefferson county, that he once lived there. "Which is his home town, San Francisco or Los Angeles?"
"Well the fact is," says Paul Whiteman, now at the Million Dollar Theater, "I was born in Denver, but any one of them is my home town."
So now that that is settled, a few words of explanation may be appropriate. Paul studied the violin at home, and went to San Francisco, where he played in the San Francisco Symphony orchestra for six years. Realizing the possibilities of symphony music combined with syncopation, he came to Los Angeles and joined a jazz band, from which he was fired because of his radical ideas. His first band, under his direction, was at the Alexandria Hotel, Los Angeles. He played there for some years and was then sent by S. W. Strauss to the Ambassador Hotel, Atlantic City. New York men coming down to Atlantic City for the summer season had never heard jazz as he played it. He received numerous propositions, and finally accepted a contract at the Palais Royal, New York, where he stayed for five years.
He left the Palais Royal with the idea of jazz concerts, for which he was laughed at. But he made a success of his first concert at Aeolian Hall, New York, which he financed himself. After this, he went on tour, and has been on ever since at high prices.
His present engagement at the Million Dollar, in conjunction with the picture, "The Gods," is his first appearance with his band at popular prices.

Conrad Nagel to Introduce Screen Stars
Conrad Nagel, one of Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's stars has consented to be master of ceremonies at the gala opening Wednesday evening of John Gilbert's King Victor production "Bardeley's The Magnificent" at the Carthay Circle Theater.
Mr. Nagel will introduce the stars, featured players and director of the picture following its presentation on the screen.
Hundreds of leading players of film-land have already reserved seats, it is said, for the opening.
The final performances of "The Volga Boatman," will be given Monday afternoon and evening, and then the theater will be closed all day Tuesday and until Wednesday evening for rehearsals.
Carl Kliner has been working for weeks on his musical score for the new picture and promises music lovers a rare treat while Jack Laughlin has had his company of artists working day and night preparing for his prologue "Les Magnifique."

Collegiate Romance
JOBYNA PLAYS LAST HEROINE FOR HAROLD
ON COMPLETION OF CURRENT COMEDY SHE MAY FREE-LANCE
Jobyna Balston is at present playing her last part opposite Harold Lloyd under the contract that has existed for more than three years. Following completion of this picture, she will become a free lance actress.
It is possible, according to Miss Balston, that she may become associated with another company under a long-term contract.
Miss Balston's time for the past three years has been devoted principally to Lloyd's comedies, within the past eight months she has been loaned out to First National for one vehicle, "Sweet Daddies," and to Cecil B. De Mille studios for one, "Gigolo."
Miss Balston will complete her present part opposite Lloyd about the first of November. No definite shooting schedule is followed by the Lloyd company, making it impossible for them to give her an exact date of release from further obligations.
Swedish Actor Declines Offers of Roles Abroad
With a number of offers to return to Europe and resume his position on the stage and screen, and with American motion-picture critics acclaiming him the one great foreign film "find" of the year after viewing his work in "Into Her Kingdom," Rinar Hanson, the Swedish actor, has been in a mental turmoil trying to decide whether he should stay in America or return to Europe. He has definitely set his mind upon remaining in Hollywood for a year at least.
Eight months ago Hanson decided to come to America and work for a year in pictures. He turned down a request to appear at the Royal Theater in Copenhagen in the role of the Prince in "Old Heidelberg," a part which made him famous in Germany and the Scandinavian countries.
Hanson's first important role in the films was that of the Russian peasant in Corinne Griffith's "Into Her Kingdom." At the time Miss Griffith proclaimed him one of the best prospective stars who had shown his face among the newcomers. Her belief in the Swedish actor was corroborated by critics, who were enthusiastic over his performance opposite Miss Griffith in the picture.
Hanson is now engaged in playing the leading role opposite Corinne Griffith in the present production, "The Lady in Ermine," which is now in the making. During the past month he has had numerous screen offers and two stage offers from foreign producers to return, but has decided to pass them all and spend the coming year in Hollywood.
Lucas Honor Guest at Midnight Show
Nick Lucas, Orpheum headliner, will be the guest of honor of Olsen and Johnson at the midnight performance of "Monkey Business" at the Majestic Saturday night, according to announcements from Michael Corper.
Arrangements have been made by Olsen and Johnson for Nick's appearance on the stage in a musical number prepared by himself. The Orpheum star plans a complete surprise for midnight audiences, it was said, and Nick is expected to have his hands full when the several hundred members of the Huntington Park Lions' Club, who are to attend, attempt to "break up" the show.
Headed by Harry Ward, the Huntington Park clubmen will endeavor to inject a lot of extra fun into the program. It is their plan to show Olsen and Johnson a musical revue should be presented.

TO BE MONKEY FOLLOW RECIPE
Jacques Lerner, celebrated Parisian delineator, who has been in the monkey business for years, and who will repeat his performance when he appears in the title role of Fox Film's version of "The Monkey TALKER" gives the following recipe to aspiring monkeys.
"How to make a monkey of yourself! Ouvre de longue haleine! An endless task! Take twenty years of study. Add slowly twenty more years of practice. Mix thoroughly with a barrelful of hair. Season with many cups brimful of disappointment and despair. Four the whole into the experience of 1000 or more roles. Add a dash of genius and plenty of skill in the art of make-up. Viola! It is simple, n'est ce pas?
"But—ou!—there are many ways of making a monkey of yourself requiring less effort and ingenuity!"
Story of Early Days of Boxing Seen at Loew's
"Barney," Donn Byrne's story with Renee Adoree in the leading role, opens at Loew's State today.
James Carbine, the leading masculine role, is done by Ralph Graves. Carbine is a husky, good-natured fighting Irishman, who, in the bare-knuckle days of the prize ring, captures the championship of his native land, and comes to America seeking new worlds to conquer.
He becomes a tangled skein about him and two women, Marcolina, the singing siren of the cafes, who loves him not for himself, but for the glamour of his achievements, and Peggy Nolan, the sweet and trusting little Irish lass who worships him as a demi-god.
Paulette Goddard plays Marcolina, a type new to Carbine, who casts her spell over the young Irishman and wins his name in marriage, while Peggy Nolan, played by Renee Adoree, is the girl who watches and waits and hopes, and finally wins the championship.
But before the triangle is finally adjusted, a romance is spun, laid against the colorful background of the old-time prize ring. Carbine, defeated in the ring, is discarded by Marcolina, and step by step he goes downward to the dregs, a ditch digger, finally, beaten mentally and physically.

Bad Men Were Tough in Name Only, It Seems
"Three Bad Men"
That's what they were called by the authorities of three nations who hunted them and posted rewards for their capture dead or alive.
And they were three of the most lovable old rogues who ever rustled a stein of beer. Chinamen, or befriended a friendless girl. They were the terror of that great west open country that was the West of the early '70s and particularly were they feared by other so-called "bad men" but when a soft-voiced southern lassie was in trouble these three old galsots tightened up their belts, oiled their trusty six guns and prepared to die that she might have happiness with the man she loved.
That, in brief, is a description of the three characters portrayed by Tom Smithey, Frank Campbell and J. Farrell MacDonald in John Ford's picture which is now showing at the Figueroa Theater.
"Three Bad Men" is now in its third week at the Figueroa Theater.
Tells Stories of Grand Opera at Auditorium
Telling the stories of the operas of the repertoire of the coming season of the Los Angeles Grand Opera Association, a series of free opera talks will be given, beginning Monday noon, at the Philharmonic Auditorium, by Ethel Graham Lynde, musical lecturer.
The operagoers or talks, in which not only the music but the drama of the various operas to be given in the coming season will be told, will be given each noon of the week ending Saturday, October 2. The opera season begins the following Monday, October 4.
Miss Lynde is a lecturer on things musical. She was formerly with the Board of Public Lectures, New York City, and in that capacity talked on all of the newer European and Metropolitan operas. She was the official interpreter for the $10,000 prize opera, "Fairland," presented in Los Angeles in 1915.
LOUISE ALMOST THROUGH
Louise Fazenda is through for the moment of being a stylish screen personage, for as the woman of wealth in "Mamma Kiss Papa" for Warner she has one session of night work and then can say "adieu." This is her third picture this year for Warner and her costumes assumed the importance. She was a fashionable owner of a modiste's shop in "The Passionate Guy" and a lively model in "Red" Orange in "One Night in Play" with Little Mary V. McCallister, the Ewanby child star of a few years ago. Nevertheless, they are the same person. Mary is now almost 18 years of age and she returned several years in private school.
Tom McNamara has rejected an offer to remain in the East where he is now engaged in an advisory capacity with the Paramount-Thomas Egan company. He will return to Los Angeles next month to associate himself with one of the leading producing companies in a directorial office.
Edwin Carewe, who is to direct Count Leo Tolstoy's "Resurrection," played the principal make role in the stage piece of the year, eighteen years ago. Ever since that time, the daughter of Dakota, who is reared on the mysterious island, where barbers and scissors are unknown.

MEYERSON MUSIC AT OCCIDENTAL BOWL
The production of "A Midsummer Night's Dream," at the Occidental College Bowl tonight and tomorrow night will afford a rare treat to music lovers in its presentation of Mendelssohn's music to the Shakespearean masterpiece.
Perhaps everybody knows the "Wedding March," but not everyone who is familiar with this selection associates it with its original setting in this piece. The shimmering and fairy-like overture is known and loved by symphony concertgoers. Although less known, the lovely nocturne, the bubbling scherzo, and the delicately wrought intermezzo, as well as the choruses of Titania's lullaby, the Snaile, and the incidental fragments woven into the fairy scenes, are equally charming.
Arthur Parrell is the musical director of the production and will lead the choruses which have been rehearsing under his baton. Conrad William Fuhler will conduct the incidental orchestral music, of which he has made a special arrangement for this occasion.
SLOANE INTRODUCES NEW SCREEN FACES
Director Paul Sloane, under contract to the Cecil B. De Mille studios, is shortly to do his bit in the production of new faces for the screen.
With the release of "Corporal Kate," Sloane's new production, this director will introduce some new players whose names may live for years.
"Corporal Kate" introduces Vera Reynolds as a star on the Producers Distributing Corporation program. Opposite her will be Kenneth Thompson, a new leading man for whom pleasing predictions are being made as a result of his work in the "War picture. Honors also are said to fall to Harry Allen, a character comedian.
But few film fans associate Mary McCallister, leading woman of the screen, who was featured opposite "Red" Orange in "One Night in Play" with Little Mary V. McCallister, the Ewanby child star of a few years ago. Nevertheless, they are the same person. Mary is now almost 18 years of age and she returned several years in private school.

Catalina Swim Fails to Daunt Comedy Couple
Raymond Hatton and Wallace Beery have announced their intention of entering the Catalina Channel swim.
Hatton says the swim will take place on a calm day because the waves roll too high on a windy day. Hatton also announced the equipment which the two comedians will carry with them when they enter the water on a calm day next summer. Two pair of water wings and two inner tubes, both inflated, two all-day suckers apiece for nourishment, as they plan to take two days making the swim; Eddie Sutherland, their director, in a rowboat and a comb and brush so the newswall photographers will catch them looking their best.
Monte Brice, gag man with Hatton and Beery on their present picture, "Mary Kay," will go along with director Eddie Sutherland in the rowboat. Monte will tell his famous negro stories to the boys as encouragement. Eddie will laugh at the end of each story so if Ray and Wally do not hear it because of passing steamers or some other disturbance, they will know when to laugh.
NEW ZANE GREY FILM WILL BE BEGUN SOON
Within a week Jack Holt will begin work in the leading role of Zane Grey's story, "The Man of the Forest," which Paramount will film. Holt and John Waters, the director, have spent the past month working out the details of the story and selecting locations for the film which is to be the most pretentious Zane Grey film produced. Holt and Waters, working as a star-director unit, have made two of the most successful Zane Grey westerns. They have co-operated on the filming of "Born to the West" and "Fortieth River." The supporting cast for "The Man of the Forest" has not been selected as yet. The picture will go into production within two weeks.
Mathilde Comont is the latest addition to Scott Sidney's cast engaged in filming "The Wrong Mr. Wright," starring Jean Herscholt at Universal. The cast now includes besides Herscholt and Miss Comont, Knud Bennefy, Dorothy Devore, Walter Hiers and Ed Kennedy.

JASON ROBARDS GETS ROLE IN KLEIN PLAY
Jason Robards, screen and stage leading man, has just signed a contract with Warner Brothers to play the leading male role in that company's forthcoming production of the Charles Klein play which will be the first American effort by Michael Curtiz. Warner's new foreign director, Dolores Costello is the star of the feature and the adaptation to the screen was made by Ross Henry and Graham Baker.
In accepting this part Robards turned down two splendid offers to return to the speaking stage. One, it is said, was to play the role of Napoleon in Michael Arlen's play, "The Great Game," which is now being leaves the El Capitan Theater here to open in San Francisco, and the other was the lead in "The Golden Rule" play which is to open in New York City early in October.
SEPARING ADVANCES NEW COMEDY IDEAS
James O. Sparring has been called to New York in connection with the production of a series of motion-picture comedies for national distribution. The comedies involve several said to be distinctly new ideas by Mr. Sparring.
After obtaining his release from Universal several months ago, Mr. Sparring applied himself to the production of these comedies. He obtained financial backing from an independent source and went to work to produce them. He is expected to announce the title and other production plans for his next Paramount comedy within a few days after his return.
The comedian, accompanied by his production manager, J. R. Crone, motored to the Northwest, but they are returning aboard the steamship H. P. Alexander. While in Seattle they visited the shipyard there in search of a yacht or cruiser for MacLean's personal use.
MacLEAN WILL RETURN FROM VACATION JAUNT
Douglas MacLean will return to Los Angeles today from a vacation trip that carried him to Seattle and Vancouver. He is expected to announce the title and other production plans for his next Paramount comedy within a few days after his return.
The comedian, accompanied by his production manager, J. R. Crone, motored to the Northwest, but they are returning aboard the steamship H. P. Alexander. While in Seattle they visited the shipyard there in search of a yacht or cruiser for MacLean's personal use.

He! And NOW a — Deauville DOWNTOWN Club

ANNOUNCEMENT

The founders of the Deauville Beach Club have organized and are receiving applications for membership in the Deauville City Club

A Downtown Club for both Men and Women!

$200 Founder Memberships for $100
(For a limited period only!)

A club located in the heart of the business district—Sixth and Flower—

Containing 12 stories—a magnificent height-limit structure—

With every facility for the fullest enjoyment of club life by both men and women—

Offering Founder Life Memberships at only $100 plus federal tax! And only $3.00 per month dues! No other liability, assessments, or obligations.

SOMETHING absolutely new in clubdom! The beach club idea brought to the city! A smart, luxurious, completely appointed downtown club for both men and women!

The Clubhouse will have a frontage of 175 feet on Flower and 121 feet on Sixth. It will contain over 3,839,419 cubic feet and will cost over $1,500,000 to erect.

TO MEN—The Deauville City Club offers you a rendezvous for business lunches and appointments during business hours—complete facilities for every form of indoor athletic sport and exercise—and, in the evening, a brilliant setting for dinners, dancing, swimming and card parties—every form of social recreation!

TO WOMEN—For the woman in business, the Deauville City Club offers just what it offers men—a central location and most desirable facilities for business engagements and lunches. And to all women it will appeal as an ideal place for afternoon tea and card parties, athletic diversions and varied, scintillating evening entertainment!

Here are some of the chief features of this, the most unique club in the West:

Whole floors given to gymnasium, squash and hand ball courts.

The finest and largest swimming pool in the city—over 150 feet in length—with locker facilities for both men and women.

Turkish baths for both men and women.

Sixteen bowling alleys.

Twenty-five pool and billiard tables.

Large ballroom on the top floor, surrounded by alcoves and private dining rooms—especially designed for dinner dances.

Sumptuously appointed lounge, library and writing rooms.

Nursery in charge of trained nurse, for the convenience of women on shopping tours, at the theatre or club affairs.

Main dining room, private dining rooms, special women's dining room, grill and cafeteria.

Basement and sub-basement—over 40,000 square feet—for garage and parking space.

Morgan, Walls and Clements, architects, have been engaged to complete plans at the earliest possible moment, while the Scofield Engineering Company has been retained as builders. The enterprise is fully financed and will be carried promptly to completion.

CITIZENSHIP CLASS HELD FOR WOMEN

El Monte Club Members, Although Voters, Study Subject at High School

EL MONTE, Sept. 23.—What is considered the first extension of the Americanization idea as applied to the American club women is being installed in the El Monte High School this year under a plan as formulated by Mrs. Frank Wright, president of the El Monte Women's Club, and Mrs. Simon Levich, one of its directors.

The board of the Women's Club through a questionnaire found that there is a desire for a citizenship class among its members, and requested the high school trustees to allow Prof. Percival J. Cooney, the Americanization teacher, to act as the instructor, with a regular term of lectures in the evening of the club hours.

More than thirty women already have enrolled to study citizenship and its duties and much interest is being shown by the club women of the community. The women are American citizens, all of them being native-born Americans and registered voters.

San Diego Crash Toll Stirs City to Rigid Action

SAN DIEGO, Sept. 23.—With three persons dead and nine recovered from injuries and one man held on suspicion of being a hit-and-run driver, officials of San Diego city and county are preparing to redouble their efforts to enforce safe auto driving on the highways and streets here.

The dead include Bernice Acuna, National City, who died at the National City Sanatorium from injuries in a crash at Palm City last night; Thomas L. Daniel, who died at County Hospital from injuries received in a crash at Kettner Boulevard and Cedar street yesterday morning; Rex Putkin, who died at County Hospital from injuries received when he was run down by a hit-and-run driver Tuesday night.

The sudden increase in the number of accidents on city streets involving automobiles has caused the police and traffic men to plan drastic means to halt the steadily growing loss of life.

EPISCOPAL CENTRAL DEANERY CONDUCTED

HANFORD, Sept. 23.—The central deanery of the Episcopal churches of the San Joaquin Valley and of the Women's Church Service League was held here yesterday with seventy-five delegates present, besides visitors.

Bishop Sanford and Dean McDonald made addresses, as did Miss E. L. Howe of Madera, president of the service league. Miss E. H. Clark, who was elected secretary of the league, gave a very interesting talk on educational work of the church being carried on in the county.

The meeting closed with a night session. St. Margaret's Guild served a noon luncheon and afternoon tea to the delegates.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS HONOR NEW DEPUTY

POMONA, Sept. 23.—With guests from eight neighboring cities to the number of 250 in attendance at the Knights of Columbus banquet held at the Elbell Club tonight, William J. Wilkinson of this city, deputy-elect of the twenty-fourth district of the order, and J. D. Stall of Whittier, retiring deputy, were the honor guests, and several prominent speakers of the organization contributed to an excellent evening's program.

Rev. Father Roger O'Shea was in charge of the entertainment, which included a speech by Stephen A. Galin, Grand Master of the Long Beach Council, and congratulatory talks by various grand knights of the order, including the Pomona and Long Beach councils.

Mrs. M. C. Kennedy was in charge of the dinner, with Mrs. Carol J. Wilkinson and Mrs. Henry Beck assisting.

ONCE PROUD VESSEL MEETS IGNOBLE END

REDONDO BEACH, Sept. 23.—(AP)—Dynamite last night sounded the death knell of the old clipper ship William Bowden, which went on the beach here in a storm last winter.

The ship had been in use as a fishing barge. It had been known as one of the fastest ships in the Australian trade. A heavy charge of explosive blasted the hull to kindling. Its destruction had been ordered by city officials, who declare the stranded wreck a menace to public safety.

WILDMAN HUNT BEGUN

Los Angeles Officers Seek Supposed Maniac After Continued Reign of Terror

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 23.—A wild man who may be a fugitive from the justice of the law is terrorizing the people of the eastern part of the city. The police have made several trips there but so far have failed to capture the man.

The "wild man," if he is the thief as East Side residents think, is partial to peaches. Each night he sneaks in a different orchard, the fruit growers informed the police.

"Because his whippers he looks like an old man but he runs like a deer when anyone calls him," a janitor told investigating officers to-day. The mysterious stranger was reported to have frightened several women and children. He has not yet harmed any one, although he has been accused of stealing considerable fruit. If he is in an orchard when an automobile approaches he quickly hides behind a tree or drops flatly on the ground, it was said.

NEW MARK SET BY TULARE FAIR

Attendance, Exhibits, Interest, Surpassing This Year

Baby Beauty Show Drawing Card of Event

Display of Live Stock Large and Quality High

TULARE, Sept. 23.—Attendance increased about 70 per cent over last year, established the opening day of the seventh annual Tulare County Fair, has continued through the third day with every promise of holding good until the close of the show Saturday night. Local business houses closed this afternoon, today being devoted to Tulare and Corcoran, hundreds of residents from the two cities swelling the attendance.

The Wild West show and rodeo this afternoon proved a strong draw. Another performance will be given this evening. Running races and an immigrant train are a feature of this event. A score of real Indians participated in the latter number.

Superior live stock and poultry gave way this afternoon to infant charms of every description, the baby beauty show holding the spotlight.

Parole Sought by Kern County Murder Convict

OMONA, Sept. 23.—Edna May's King, world champion five-gaited saddle horse, owned by Reuel English, Sierra Vista Stock Farm, Chino, will stage his triumphant home-coming at the Los Angeles County Fair, Pomona, Tuesday, after winning the $10,000 world championship stake for the second time in two years at the Kentucky State Fair, Louisville. Mr. English is planning to have the horse returned from the Kentucky show with the champion saddle yesterday.

Edna May's King will have competitors in the county fair show. Among them will be Mirsle Man, wonder horse of the Carnation Farm, Washington. The California show is the largest show stable in the United States and Mirsle Man is the pride of the farm.

A model home is portrayed in the women's department, rather than a series of separate divisions. Treasured heirlooms are displayed with modern art and handwork, setting off to advantage various rooms of a home, while even the flower garden is depicted with choice plants and cut flowers. Bright enameled garden chairs add to the charm of the tea house, while the kitchen, with its latest electric devices, would gladden any housewife.

Glendale Will Seek Lowering of Track Level

GLENDAL, Sept. 23.—The Glendale City Council will, within two weeks, initiate a movement for the lowering of the Pacific Electric tracks on Brand Boulevard, from Windsor Road, south to the point where the Southern Pacific tracks cross Brand Boulevard. City Engineer Robert A. Atwater, recommending the lowering of the tracks, said that the tracks are a nuisance to the city and that the lowering of the tracks would be a great benefit to the city.

The Atwater organization is said to favor the plan suggested to the Los Angeles City Council by Councilman Randall, recommending the lowering of the tracks, said that the tracks are a nuisance to the city and that the lowering of the tracks would be a great benefit to the city.

First Shipment of Walnut Crop Enters Pomona

POMONA, Sept. 23.—First shipments of the 1926 walnut crop arrived at the Chino warehouse today and commences the walnut harvest of the estimated 1968 tons from the Pomona Valley this season. The crop of the new 620,000 Chinatown house were opened today to receive the first load and Manager L. P. Randall, announced that shipments would be received continuously up to October 1, when sorting and packing would begin in earnest.

The season will be officially opened at the Walnut Fruit Growers' plant at Walnut Monday, Manager James Wolstencroft announced today. The crop in this district is estimated at 630 tons, to be picked from 2400 acres.

Walnuts from both packing-houses will bear the Diamond Brand stamped on all individual nuts, special stamping being done by the growers to attend to this in both houses.

ANGELENO CHOSEN TO HEAD STATE UNIONS

FEDERATION VOICES PROTEST AT SYNDICALISM LAW: C. C. YOUNG SPEAKS

OAKLAND, Sept. 23.—(AP)—John F. Dalton of Los Angeles today was elected president of the California Federation of Labor. Supported almost unanimously by the southern districts, he polled 28,254 votes to 23,585 for Roy H. Baker of San Francisco, incumbent president, who was running for re-election.

Another heated contest developed over the selection of a delegate to the next convention of the American Federation of Labor. A majority was obtained by none of the candidates and the three leaders will engage in a run-off election tomorrow. The three are George G. Kidwell of San Francisco, Mrs. Elma Smith of Napa, and Donald Witt of Oakland.

Paul Scharenberg of San Francisco, veteran secretary-treasurer of the federation, was re-elected without opposition.

RANCHER WHO CELEBRATED ON FOURTH WITH DYNAMITE HELD GUILTY OF BREAKING PEACE

PASADENA, Sept. 23.—Even though a man disturbs the peace of a police officer, he isn't necessarily guilty of the criminal charge known as "disturbing the peace." So eleven members of a Justice Court jury ruled here today in the case of Alexander Baird of Sierra Madre.

Baird's asserted offense dates back to the Fourth of July when his zeal for noise led him to explode three tons of dynamite in a field on the Hastings Ranch in Sierra Madre. Baird had lit the fuses and had run about a half-mile when three police officers of Sierra Madre, including G. O. McMullan, happened on the explosive and by hasty footwork managed to separate themselves from the imminent blast.

McMullan thought that what might have happened and had Baird arrested on a charge of disturbing the peace. The jury, after a considerable deliberation, agreed that the peaceful disturbance was not a crime, and the verdict was returned.

Wife Says Mate Vexed at Style of His Upkeep

SANTA ANA, Sept. 23.—When Arthur M. Poulson got married he discovered that his wife was unable to support him in the style to which he had been accustomed. He betrayed resentment at this betrayal of his confidence and expressed his opinion to his wife in no uncertain terms. Such was the substance of statements made by Mrs. Margaret A. Poulson today in her divorce complaint filed in Superior Court through her attorney, D. O. Moore of Compton.

"If I had known you weren't married to support me I never have married you," Poulson protested to his wife, with County Clerk Smith's declaration, because she did not keep him supplied with tobacco and cigars.

The Poulsons were married in Riverside March 4, last, and separated this month.

RECEIVER DENIED IN COTTON CROP FIGHT

COBORAN, Sept. 23.—Suits in the Superior Court over a large cotton crop on land near this city was held yesterday with two opposing attorneys on each side of the case. The matter is a dispute over the ownership of the cotton crop, and the court is expected to decide the case in the near future.

VALLEY GETS READY TO GATHER WALNUTS

VALLEY, Sept. 23.—The Van Nuys Legion post will hold its annual meeting on October 1 instead of January 1, starting its new fiscal year with the first date. New officers will be elected. A. Heald will be elected president, and Charles Henningsen, John T. Miller, J. P. Ingles and H. V. E. Hubbard. The Van Nuys post has 125 members and is one of the most active bodies in San Fernando Valley.

IMPERIAL DISTRICT INTERVIEWS BANKERS

MILAND, Sept. 23.—Representatives of the Imperial Irrigation District at San Francisco this week are negotiating with bankers relative to the financing of the Miland water district. Plans are being discussed whereby the project will be completed through the sale of bonds and the property later absorbed into the Imperial district and the bondholders reimbursed from district funds. The completion of this project will add about 20,000 acres of cultivated land to the valley.

BOY KILLED IN GRIDIRON PLAY

Falling Apparatus Brings Death to Student

Pomona Accident Takes Place on School Grounds

POMONA, Sept. 23.—Pinned to the ground by the sudden collapse of the framework supporting a football tackling dummy at the Emerson school here, this morning, Jacob Mitchell, thirteen-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. John Mitchell, died at the home of his parents on North San Antonio avenue as the result of injuries caused by a heavy beam striking him between the head and shoulders as he attempted to get from under the falling apparatus.

Warned repeatedly by schoolmates that the affair was unsafe, young Mitchell continued to tackle the dummy, when the 4 x 6 upright supports, rotted away at the ground level, suddenly gave way, allowing the whole to fall, striking the lad a heavy blow.

Apparently only stunned, the lad stumbled to his feet and attempted to walk to the school building but was unable to do so. He was carried to the rest room and placed upon a couch and medical aid and his father were summoned. Death occurred a few minutes after he had been taken to his home and is thought to be due to internal hemorrhage. Deceased leaves his mother and father, a brother and two sisters. Funeral arrangements are to be announced after the Coroner's inquest Friday.

According to Principal Cordova of Emerson school, the apparatus now been in place at the school for several years and witnesses state that the weakness of the affair was noticed at last night's football practice and that the members of the team were forbidden to use it. Examination after the accident disclosed that the supports had rotted at the ground and no break was discernible where the supports had given way as they were rotted through.

Porterville Lays Plans to Form Air Organization

PORTERVILLE, Sept. 23.—Strong possibility of Porterville taking her place in aviation activities of the valley looms almost as a certainty, with a flying club already practically organized. W. L. Lankin, prominent citrus grower, former aviator during the war, and an active member of the American Legion, has been a leading spirit in the movement. It is believed that ten hardy souls are about ready to join such an organization, formation of which awaits obtaining of a satisfactory plane, according to reports.

A plane for consideration will arrive almost any day, it is said. Plans for the club include flying for members by an experienced pilot.

The American Legion, Chamber of Commerce and other civic organizations are considering ways and means of procuring a permanent landing field for Porterville.

It is believed they will be keenly interested in any movement to place Porterville in the vanguard of the air.

ELECTION CONTESTED

BAKERSFIELD, Sept. 23.—Re-election of Supervisor Hart for the Third Supervisorial District by a majority of votes cast at the primaries will be contested by Joshua Clarke, according to an affidavit of contest filed with County Clerk Smith. The official canvass of the Board of Supervisors gave Supervisor Hart 3455 votes, against 2441 for all other candidates. In making his check, giving Mr. Hart a majority of all votes cast, the Board of Supervisors declared that Supervisor Hart's name should be the only one printed on the ballot at the ensuing election in November.

Other candidates for the same office, according to the affidavit of Clarke, received the following number of votes: Clarke, 1205; McLean, 817; Brightline, 474, and Robert 573.

ANGELENO GIVEN LIMIT FINE IN RUM CASE

VENTURA, Sept. 23.—C. D. Morgan, 317 Figueroa street, was given the "limit" by Judge Thomas H. Meland at his hearing on a charge of possessing liquor, which was found by Officers Bell and Sharp in Morgan's locker after Bell had arrested Morgan on a charge of assaulting Tom Thompson, 234 Fir street, with a broken watermelon rind. Morgan's main defense was that he was a waiter in a restaurant early Monday morning. Morgan was sentenced to pay a fine of $400 or spend one day in jail for each dollar of the fine until the fine is paid or satisfied. He still is in jail pending the possible complaint by Thompson on the assault charge.

VENTURA DAHLIA SHOW OPENS TODAY

VENTURA, Sept. 23.—The fourth annual two-day show of the Ventura County Dahlia Society will open at 3 p.m. Friday in Ventura. According to L. D. Van Delinder, manager of the show, there are about fourteen exhibitors already signed up, but he said there probably will be more before the show ends. There will be a fine show of dahlias, including many new varieties. Among them are the show, decorative, cactus, hybrid cactus, peonies, calla lilies and pom-pom varieties.

ANTS INVADE GLENDALE

House-Eating Insects Seek Change of Diet After Pasadena Starts Battling

PASADENA, Sept. 23.—White ants, or termites, which were recently discovered to be attacking wooden buildings in Pasadena and causing considerable damage, have extended their activities to Glendale, Chief Building Inspector Putnam of this city reported today. He is co-operating with the Glendale Building Department in efforts toward the extermination of the insects.

Putnam has been granted a special appropriation from the Pasadena Board of City Directors to conduct a thorough inspection of buildings here and to determine just how stringent measures are necessary to control the insect advance.

Nearly twenty public or semipublic buildings have been discovered so far in which the ants are active. Putnam reported today. They have also been found in numerous residences and smaller structures, chiefly covered by the attacking wooden buildings in Pasadena and causing considerable damage, have extended their activities to Glendale, Chief Building Inspector Putnam of this city reported today. He is co-operating with the Glendale Building Department in efforts toward the extermination of the insects.

SEIZED RUM SPILLED AT CHRISTENING

Bottle of Tequila Flows Over New Railway Station at Calexico

CALEXICO, Sept. 23.—A bottle of contraband tequila liquor was used today in the christening of Calexico's new $70,000 railroad station recently completed by the Southern Pacific Company. The Chamber of Commerce, had planned to use Colorado river water for the event, until Deputy Collector of Customs Shepherd came forward with the liquor, which was recently seized from her smugglers. Shepherd said he had been ordered to destroy the stuff today, but that he did not see any objection to breaking the bottle on the masonry of the new railroad depot in connection with the dedication program. Miss Arlene Martin, high school valedictorian, performed the ceremony.

G. E. Gaylord, division superintendent of passenger service, presented the station to Calexico, and it was accepted on behalf of the city by Mayor West.

The Southern Pacific has announced plans for the erection of new passenger stations at Brawley and El Centro during the coming year.

SHOPS SHUT FOR RIVERSIDE FAIR

Clerks and Office Men Swell Crowd on Home Day

Special Entertainment and Race Program Held

Gov. Richardson Will be Guest Tomorrow

RIVERSIDE, Sept. 23.—Business men of the city showed their loyalty to the Southern California Fair today when they closed all of the business houses at noon and declared the rest of the day and evening dedicated to this, the fourteenth annual exhibition staged by this veteran fair organization. Practically every clerk and office worker in the city went directly to the fair grounds after the noon closing hour and swelled the immense crowd already gathered from outside points to the largest attendance figure in the history of the organization.

A special program on the stage of the industrial tent had been arranged for Riverside Day and more free entertainment was provided than on previous days of the fair. Entertainment. Some of the fastest and most closely contested races were staged on the half-mile track, and the most popular place on the grounds during the afternoon. Judging in nearly all of the departments is nearing completion so that a complete list of prize winners in all classes will be announced tomorrow, when a beautiful array of prizes and other premiums will be distributed.

Exhibits in the women's and educational departments continue to attract large crowds and more favorable comment, while the fine showing of paintings displayed by the Laguna Beach Art Association excites the admiration of all who visit the fine arts tent. It is said that never before has there been so much valuable and worthwhile group of paintings ever assembled for a fair-ground display. The third tier of the industrial tent is a leading spirit in the movement. It is believed that ten hardy souls are about ready to join such an organization, formation of which awaits obtaining of a satisfactory plane, according to reports.

All of the young actors enter with real into the spirit of the play and give it an atmosphere impossible with a cast other than that made up of Indians.

The next big day will be Saturday, when Gov. Richardson will be the honor guest of the fair and deliver a special program of events to take place in front of the grand stand during the afternoon has been arranged. Sunday will be the last day of this most successful show and will be Los Angeles Day. The management is making every effort to care for the largest delegation from the metropolis that has ever visited the local fair grounds.

Rose Festival Woman's Section Leader Chosen

PASADENA, Sept. 23.—Mrs. Frederick J. Mills Pasadena today appointed permanent chairman of the woman's division of the Tournament of Roses Association by Harry M. Ticknor, president of the organization, which annually stages Pasadena's famous midwinter floral pageant.

Mrs. Mills's appointment makes her one of the most important officials in the association, inasmuch as the newly formed woman's division is rapidly extending its surrounding circle, and through it stronger communities are being induced to enter into the tournament parade.

The purpose of the woman's group is to coordinate the efforts of the women of the county who may enter the pageant, so that the parade entries will be of the highest quality and attention from a duly authorized body.

Mrs. Ada Martin Brayton was named today as chairman of the division's publicity committee. Those in charge of the coming meeting next month are Mrs. John Franklyn, vice chairman; Mrs. Iona Davis and Mrs. Frederick J. Marsh.

CITY CHIEF ON STAGE

PASADENA, Sept. 23.—Franklin B. Cole, chairman of the Board of City Directors of Pasadena, will become a vaudeville entertainer tomorrow night for the purpose of helping raise funds for Florida storm victims. The head of the municipal government will sing "On the Road to Mandalay" as the opening number in an open-air show of twenty-four acts that will be held in Library Park.

Civic organizations, local theaters and many individuals have volunteered their talents in the hope that the public entertainment will draw several thousand persons and swell Pasadena's storm-relief fund. All receipts will be turned over to the Red Cross.

VENTURA DAHLIA SHOW OPENS TODAY

VENTURA, Sept. 23.—The fourth annual two-day show of the Ventura County Dahlia Society will open at 3 p.m. Friday in Ventura. According to L. D. This statement also said Mrs. Kennedy told her they had paid Dr. Waters $50 on one occasion and $75 on another for his work in their behalf.

DOCTOR UPGRADED

In her statement to the District Attorney's office, disclosed yesterday by Mr. Dennison, Mrs. Wiseman told that the "Miss X" "cold feet" and refused to go into the house.

When she was questioned two weeks ago Mrs. Wiseman said, according to the transcript of her statement, whether any particular "Miss X" was wanted or whether any "Miss X" would fill the bill.

"Oh, they don't care who 'Miss X' is out there," she answered.

At the time he ended his life, according to the records at the District Attorney's office, Dr. Waters was out on bail on a grand larceny charge.

His name first was brought into the McPherson case when his name and telephone number were found in a notebook belonging to Mrs. Wiseman.

His identity by police occurred a short time after his name was mentioned and while detectives were preparing to question him.

Two Western Union telegrams, supposedly received by Dr. Waters from Mrs. McPherson and Mrs. Kennedy, were found in the dead sample.

The telegram signed "Almae Sample McPherson" reads:

"Aug. 8, 1934, Los Angeles, Cal. '871 South New Hampshire, Los Angeles, Cal. 'Kindly communicate with us at earliest convenience. Highly important.'"

"ALMAE SAMPLE McPHERSON." The one signed "Mrs. Kennedy" reads:

"Los Angeles, Cal., Aug. 23, 1934. 'Dr. A. M. Waters, Los Angeles, Cal. 'Please communicate with us at earliest possible moment.'"

Written on a Postal Telegraph blank, in ink, was the following message:

"Aug. 8, 1934. 'Mr. E. Ormiston, Hotel Tynan, 84 Turk street, San Francisco. 'Will leave August sixth and meet you as directed.'"

On another Postal Telegraph blank the following was written in ink:

"Mr. and Mrs. O. (Tynan). 'Your letter pleased me. I will surely not break faith with you. I am sure that her (Miss X) deposition be taken by one designated by Mrs. McPherson, one whose standing cannot be questioned and whose veracity cannot be doubted even by a skeptical press. You spoke of Miss X's purse. I do not know what use could be made of them and I am sure she would not want to have them published.'"

"All that seems important to me is that Miss X make a sworn statement that she occupied a bungalow on the date specified and if possible to have the three people you spoke of make oath and say that she was there simply to confer with me and of course is yours and you can tell when it was installed and by whom."

"SEE YOU SOON" "I expect to leave for San Francisco tomorrow night. I hope that the service I can render will end the matter forever and the mouths of the false accusers closed. Again I say this identification will help Kenneth greatly even though coming late and he surely should spare no pains to clear up this unfortunate affair. If he plays the man now his part will soon be forgotten. Again I say your letters will be most helpful and Miss X and Kenneth will, as far as in me lies, be protected. I surely appreciate your confidence expressed in letter."

"Sincerely yours, 'A. M. W. 'P. S. See you soon.'"

Among the other papers discovered in Dr. Waters's room were notes he had made concerning Ormiston and the McPherson case. One was a lengthy discussion of his acquaintance with Ormiston and his mother and father. It follows in full:

"I know Kenneth Ormiston. I know his father and mother. Mr. Ormiston, Sr., lives in San Francisco. He is an inventor and greatly interested in auto and radio, building and installing same. Mr. Ormiston, Sr., was engaged for some time in dispatching radio in a store between Fifth and Sixth streets on Olive-Biltmore Hotel. It was there I met Kenneth Ormiston."

"(I walked with him to his car, a sedan or roadster painted blue.) It was his father and mother who introduced us. He spoke of his work at Angelus Temple—he spoke of Mrs. McPherson. Our conversation was prolonged as Mr. Ormiston was waiting for a woman companion. I saw the woman companion. He did not introduce us."

THERE WAS A REASON "There was a reason. I know the reason. Mr. Ormiston, Sr., has a car or cars to demonstrate his own ideas of car condition. I do not know that Kenneth's car was so comfortable. I believe it was."

"To be very sure that the woman that entered Ormiston's car on Olive street was not Mrs. McPherson. I visited her temple and shook her hand, and am convinced I knew her before, but for fear of a mistake I again went to see her and am convinced."

"My conversation with Ormiston I purposely omit."

her that Dr. Waters brought a "Miss X" to the very doorstep of the McPherson home at the temple and that the "Miss X" "cold feet" and refused to go into the house.

When she was questioned two weeks ago Mrs. Wiseman said, according to the transcript of her statement, whether any particular "Miss X" was wanted or whether any "Miss X" would fill the bill.

"Oh, they don't care who 'Miss X' is out there," she answered.

At the time he ended his life, according to the records at the District Attorney's office, Dr. Waters was out on bail on a grand larceny charge.

His name first was brought into the McPherson case when his name and telephone number were found in a notebook belonging to Mrs. Wiseman.

His identity by police occurred a short time after his name was mentioned and while detectives were preparing to question him.

Two Western Union telegrams, supposedly received by Dr. Waters from Mrs. McPherson and Mrs. Kennedy, were found in the dead sample.

The telegram signed "Almae Sample McPherson" reads:

"Aug. 8, 1934, Los Angeles, Cal. '871 South New Hampshire, Los Angeles, Cal. 'Kindly communicate with us at earliest convenience. Highly important.'"

"ALMAE SAMPLE McPHERSON." The one signed "Mrs. Kennedy" reads:

"Los Angeles, Cal., Aug. 23, 1934. 'Dr. A. M. Waters, Los Angeles, Cal. 'Please communicate with us at earliest possible moment.'"

Written on a Postal Telegraph blank, in ink, was the following message:

"Aug. 8, 1934. 'Mr. E. Ormiston, Hotel Tynan, 84 Turk street, San Francisco. 'Will leave August sixth and meet you as directed.'"

On another Postal Telegraph blank the following was written in ink:

man's son, Clarence, 19 years of age, will not be called as a witness at the preliminary hearing or at any other time. "Although he knows many important facts about this charged conspiracy he is too young to be tainted in the crime before the bar," Mr. Hahn said. "Det.-Atty. Keyes agrees with me and has acceded to the mother's importunities not to call the boy as a witness in this case."

PORTUNE READER SAYS PASTOR SAW HER SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 22. (Exclusive)—Mrs. Cora Thoren of San Mateo, a fortune reader, declared today, according to the San Francisco Chronicle, that Almae Sample McPherson paid her a two-hour call last May.

Mrs. Thoren, according to the Chronicle's story, said her visitor stated she was in great trouble and wanted the future read. Mrs. Thoren is quoted as saying she accused her visitor of being "Almae" and received no denial.

The fortune reader said, according to the Chronicle, that her visitor's car contained three other passengers, an elderly woman, a young woman and a man, partially bald and slightly lame.

On the back of a membership application blank for a new beach club, in Dr. Waters's handwriting the following was written:

"May 18, 1934. Taken in closed car from the beach by pre-arrangement with (Steve and Rose). Passed through country and villages then seen by a few—delivered safely in Los Angeles—transferred to Ormiston's car—proceeded north—(Carmel, Salinas, Santa Lucia)—stopped by radio to carry out kidnapping—proceeded south—appeared at Douglas, etc. Mrs. Mae returning—Ormiston—going east, plentifully supplied with Mrs. McPherson's money."

On a white piece of paper was the following:

"Mr. Ormiston in the city on the date of Mrs. McPherson's disappearance from beach—bus car seen on Fifth and Main at 4 p.m. (Ormiston)—transferred to city from beach by Steve and Rose—taken charge by Ormiston. Proceeded north. Keyes informed by radio. Judgment demanded appearance—south—safely delivered. More or less delivered at Douglas. Ormiston appeared with money—east—used names Owen and McIntire."

On stationery of the Biltmore Hotel, in Dr. Waters's handwriting, the following was written:

"July 30, 1934. 'Dear Judge Hardy: 'Apology. 'On a prescription blank, the following name appeared: 'Mr. and Mrs. Benedict. 'Mr. and Mrs. Parks. 'Florence. The Benedicts are the owners of the Carmel bungalow. Mr. and Mrs. Parks reside next door, and Mrs. Ledig owns the grocery store where Ormiston arranged to have groceries sent to his mystery companion at the seaside cottage."

On the back of one of the telegraph blanks found in the room appeared the name of Judge Bardin, who handled the Carmel investigation for the Temple. The name of "Fred Hart" also was written on the same blank.

OTHER DEVELOPMENTS Other important developments in the case today were announced by Sheriff McDonald of Cochise County, Ariz., who was the first official to express doubt of Mrs. McPherson's kidnapping story, will be called as a witness as well as other Arizonans; a judge judge denied Mrs. Dabaly a petition for a writ of habeas corpus and gave the Ormiston permission to adopt the boy as their own son. This the Ormiston did yesterday.

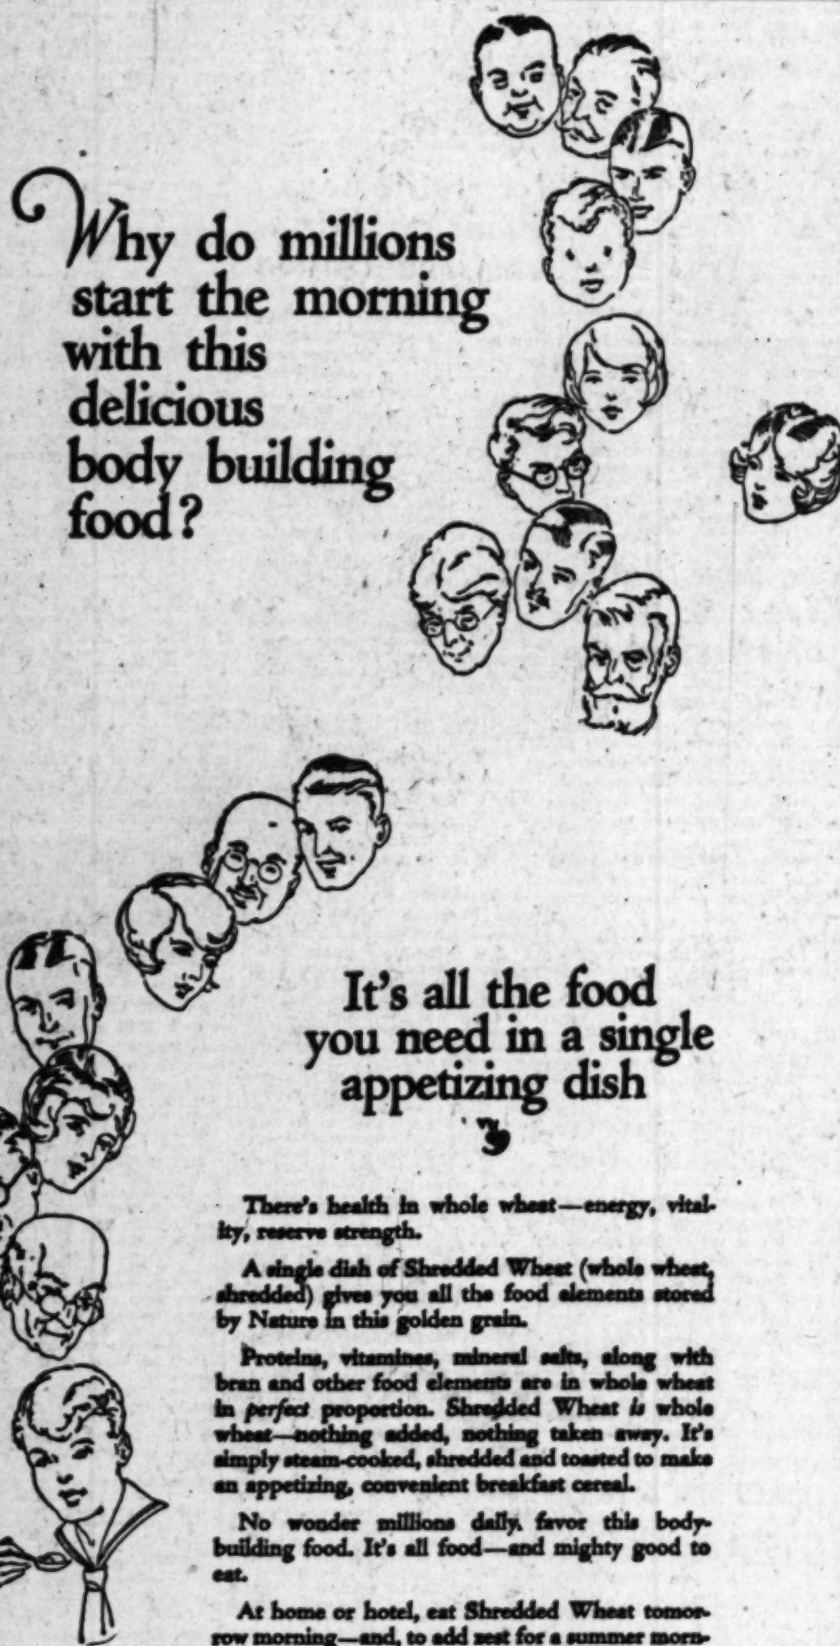

The boy was said to be an heir to an estate consisting of insurance carried by his father.

Mexican Pair Blamed for Two Hold-ups Two Mexican bandits were credited with holding up two places of business last night and getting away with $87 in cash, according to reports to the Seventy-seventh street Division police station.

In the first instance the bandits walked into a confectionery store operated by Charles Ray, at 7418 So. Broadway. After ordering drinks one bandit backed Ray into a corner at the point of a gun while the other went to work on the cash register. After the two departed, Ray seized a gun revolver and took a couple of shots at the fleeing pair.

A short time later, the police report, a pair of Mexican bandits answered the question of the pair who called on Ray, drove up to an oil station at Fifty-eighth street and Vermont avenue. One man stepped out of the coupe in which the pair were riding and told C. L. Robbins, the attendant, that the companion left seated in the car had the place covered. Robbins gave up $20 in cash.

Bumpus and Get Well! In the town of Auburn, Me., there is a drug store across the street from the main hotel. Over the drug store is a sign, "Bumpus and Get Well! If you stand in the lounge room so that a tree is between you and the drug store across the street, the name takes on a more terrifying aspect, because the tree eliminates the "c" and you get "Bumpus and Get Well." Dancer and Helen C. Miglin United in Beverly Hills Service Last Night

Milton C. Kluge, dancer, and Helen C. Miglin were married at 8 p.m. yesterday at the chapel of the Beverly Hills Mortuary, 1008 Santa Monica Boulevard, Beverly Hills. The ceremony was performed by Rev. R. M. Donaldson of the Beverly Hills Community Church.

Chief of Police Blair of Beverly Hills was best man. Mathew Baleno, brother-in-law of Harry Lauder, sang and played the wedding march. The couple plan to go to Honolulu for their honeymoon. Kluge lives in Beverly Hills. The bride arrived at 2 p.m. yesterday from New York. They met in New York three years ago when Kluge was dancing at a benefit for Belgian children.

FRATERNITY FOES SCORE NEW POINT

School Board Members Approve Plan Calling for Affidavits from Parents

The anti-fraternity movement adopted by Los Angeles High School, Fairfax High School and Pasadena Union High School last year received a new impetus last night when members of the Board of Education, at the committee of the whole, approved the plan that all parents should be asked to make a sworn statement that their sons or daughters are not members of any secret organizations.

Since membership in fraternities or sororities is forbidden by law, pupils determined that no student should be permitted to hold office or participate in student activities if he had ever been pledged to any fraternity.

The Secondary Principals' Association went on record two days ago that "in all interschool activities the principal's eligibility blank shall state that the pupil has on file in the principal's office an affidavit from one of his parents that he is not a member of, and will not, during his high-school course, become a member of or pledge of a fraternity or sorority."

Two years ago the Board of Education acted formally on the fraternity-sorority problem, and yesterday approved the plan that parents be asked to make sworn statements.

Sons of Revolution Mark John Paul Jones Clash Anniversary With Dinner

Commemorating the great naval battle between the Bon Homme Richard, under the command of Commodore John Paul Jones of the United States Navy, and the British ship Seraph, under the command of Capt. Richard Pearson, the California State Society, Sons of the Revolution, gave an informal dinner party last night at the University Club, 814 South Hope street.

More than 100 members attended. The features of the program included a historical sketch of the famous encounter that occurred September 23, 1779, and a number of addresses interspersed with vocal and instrumental selections.

The importance of patriotic education was the topic addressed by Col. Arthur Williams, U.S.N., who stated any undertaking, regardless of its nature, requires certain steps to insure progress and success. A study of the situation is followed by a decision as to what should be done, formation of a definite plan and then a directing of every effort toward fruition of that plan. A love of our country was declared by the speaker to be one of the first requirements in the basic foundation for a patriotic education.

The value of education and its reflection in the morale of the nation was the subject of an address by Virgil Kersey, assistant superintendent of Los Angeles schools. Gen. Charles H. Whipple presided at the meeting.

The event marked one of a number given each year by the Sons of the Revolution to commemorate different important dates in the history of the United States.

Funeral Today for Aged Wife of Late Pioneer

Funeral services will be conducted at 3 o'clock this afternoon for Mrs. Mary N. Robertson, 90 years of age, widow of Felix W. Robertson and a pioneer resident of Los Angeles, who died at her home, 2550 Orchard avenue, early this week.

Mrs. Robertson, who had lived alone with a nurse and companion since her husband's death some years ago, was a charter member of Manual Presbyterian Church. The last rites will be conducted from the mortuary of Robinson and Adair, 817 Vermont Boulevard.

ECONOMICS COURSE OFFERED

Increasing complexity of business has greatly enhanced the demand for knowledge of the fundamental principles of economics. To meet this demand the Y.M.C.A. school of commerce and finance is offering a special course on Wednesday evenings from 7 to 9 o'clock under the instruction of H. A. I. Welch of the State Corporation Department. Actual everyday cases will be studied and analyzed in the classroom to illustrate practical business procedure, according to J. G. White, director.
